Graduates Issued 'Help Wanted' Call by School

NEW BOSTON—A Help Wanted' call was issued this week to ALL Huron High School graduates, (all graduates since the first class of '53" through the present).

The call was issued by Vernon Moore, chairman of the Flag Pole committee for the high school's athletic building program.

"With the completion of the athletic facilities at the high school we find our self in need of a flag pole, one befitting the magnificent facilities. It has been estimated that it will cost each class at least $75.00 to cover the projects total cost," Moore said.

The class of "55" has issued a challenge to be first in and with the most. This challenge was picked up by a member of the class of "54", Moore disclosed.

"We would like to have the flag pole up and ready for the dedication ceremony to be held Oct. 17, at which time the field will be formally named "Maveal Athletic Field and also the homecoming game and activities," Moore added. The athletic field is to be named in honor of a man who dedicated his every effort to the Huron School System and its improvement, Ervin Maveal.

Time is short graduates so let's get going is the cry at Huron High.

Call Vernon Moore at 753-9388 for complete details.

"Please don't depend on someone else calling, I'm sure every class wants to help, and we want to hear from you," Moore said.

ROMULUS—The continued and rapid growth of the industrial and commercial development of Romulus Township was again in evidence Monday, Oct. 6, when groundbreaking ceremonies for a new three million dollar 120,000-square foot office and warehouse building were held.

The office-warehouse structure will serve as the new Regional Distribution Center for American Hospital Supply and Scientific Products.

Township officials and residents attended the groundbreaking festivities and welcomed the firm's executives to the future growth of the Township.

American Hospital Supply and Scientific Products are both divisions of the American Hospital Supply Corporation, headquartered in Evanston, Illinois.

Area PTA Council Holds Its First of Year Meeting

ROMULUS — The Romulus Area PTA Council held their first meeting of the year at Romulus Elementary School on Sept. 30.

Mrs. Gary Gruber, president, welcomed delegates from all eight local units. She gave a brief outline of council activities.

Minutes of the last regular meeting were read and the treasurer's report was given.

An account was made of the millage contributions and it was pointed out that there was a balance 159 remaining in the fund.

IT WAS DECIDED that the balance be held apart from regular Council accounts and be used by or donated to whatever group may be working relative to district needs in the coming year.

Mrs. David Harris of

Harrison PTA was elected treasurer, replacing Cal Anderson.

Mrs. Pearl Brown and Mrs. Sally Arrington, from Beverly PTA, were appointed Membership Chairmen. Their duties will include awarding the Council Trophy to the unit with the highest membership during the 1969-70 school year.

Mrs. Carol Renton, Gordonier delegate and PTA president, was appointed Historian.

MRS. GRUBER announced that Council's Program of Work would concern the uses of the recently voted operating millage and the building program made possible by the 1967 school bond issue.

A committee was selected to meet with the principal of the High School to discuss a matter proposed by a delegate from Romulus Elementary.

A discussion followed a question posed by a delegate from Harrison School regarding accounting and bookkeeping procedures.

Mrs. Fran Petre, Legislation Chairman and delegate from Cory read a letter from the Michigan Congress regarding PTA's opposition to aid to non-public schools.

The next meeting of the council will be on Oct. 28, at 7:30 p.m. at Beverly Elementary School, 35408 Beverly Road.

Action on Jumbo Jet Buys Cleared Postponed

ROMULUS — The Wayne County Board of Supervisors have postponed action on a committee recommendation that Boeing 747-type "jumbo" jet service at Metropolitan Airport be delayed until facilities designed to accommodate the 400-passenger airplanes are completed.

The recommendation will be taken up at the next regular board meeting, set for 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 16.

Action on the matter was delayed after the supervisors were advised by counsel that the recommendation was not enforceable as phrased in the committee report.

The big plans were expected to start using the airport in late 1970 or early 1971.

IN OTHER ACTION earlier in the week, the supervisors, meeting as the ways and means committee, rejected by a vote of 16 to 6 a special subcommittee's recommendation that emergency clothing allowances be granted to school children in families receiving Aid to Dependent Children.

A one-vote majority of the seven-member subcommittee had recommended that clothing grants be provided in individual emergencies, not on an across-the-board basis.

Opponents of the recommendation argued that the clothing needs of the children are a State responsibility.

Students Blamed

Break-in of Romulus Junior High Solved

ROMULUS—A break-in at the Romulus Junior High School on Saturday, Sept. 29, has been solved in the apprehension of six students, Stuart C. Hobbs, school principal, disclosed.

The students, four of them attending high school classes ranged from 13 to 16 years of age. They were immediately suspended pending further investigation.

The identity of the students was attributed to considerable amount of investigation on the part of school authorities. Hobbs stated.

THE SCHOOL was broken into by the students building a pyramid of themselves to enter a window nine to 10 feet above the ground. This window leads into the school's Industrial art Department.

Panax Corporation, of East Lansing, a rapidly expanding chain of daily and weekly newspapers, this week acquired The Mellus Newspapers, one of Michigan's largest groups of suburban weeklies.

Announcement of the purchase was made jointly by William S. Mellus, founder, editor and publisher of the Mellus publications, and John P. McGoff, Panax president.

The newspapers acquired by Panax are The Allen Parker, The Lincoln Parker, The Melvindale Messenger, The Southgate Sentinel, The Taylor Tribune, The Ecorse Enterprise and Southwest Detroit.

The seven weeklies, serving a 64-square-mile Downriver area with a population of nearly 300,000 have a total circulation of 67,750.

With the Mellus purchase, Panax owns and operates 19 weekly and six daily newspapers in Michigan. Having a combined circulation of more than 219,000.

In addition to the Mellus group, Panax owns the Associated Newspapers which include the Wayne Eagle, Garden City Guardian-Review, the Canton Eagle, Inkster Ledger-Star, Belleville Enterprise, Westland Eagle, Romulus Roman, Plymouth Eagle and Livonia Eagle in the Detroit metropolitan region, and the Ingham County News in suburban Lansing with editions in Holt, Mason and Meridian.

Panax dailies are The Mining Journal, in Marquette; the Escanaba Daily Press; the Iron Mountain News; the Daily Times-News, in Mt. Pleasant; the Daily Record-Leader, in Alma, and the Ypsilanti Press. The corporation also owns radio station WSWM in East Lansing. Kalamazoo Printing Machinery Company of Kalamazoo and Maintenance Service Incorporated of Ypsilanti are other Panax operations.

In commenting on the Mellus-Panax transaction, McGoff said, "Panax is very pleased to be able to add the distinguished Mellus name to our company. Bill Mellus and his staff are well known and respected for their many years of outstanding journalistic contributions to the communities served by their publications."

The Mellus Newspapers will continue to be published under that name as a division of Panax Corporation, and the staff will be retained intact. Heading the operation will be Ernie LaForest, as general manager; Orrin Wright, editorial director, and Ernest L. Nagy, advertising director.

Mellus, who entered newspaper work in the Downriver area in 1921, founded the Mellus chain in November, 1933, with four publications. The enterprise flourished and, through acquisition of other weekly newspapers in the area and the establishment of new publications, the group expanded rapidly, reaching a total of seven in 1956.

Mellus not only has played an active role in the Downriver business and community affairs, but gained national recognition as a board member, vice president and president (three terms), of the Accredited Home Newspapers of America.

Mellus described the union with the Panax Corporation as a great forward step for the Mellus publications and for the communities they serve.

"Panax is owned and staffed by men of vision and dedication to high journalistic principles," he declared. "When, for reasons of health, it became wise for me to ease the burden of responsibility inherent in the duties of publisher and editor, I searched far and wide for a suitable purchaser—one who I believed would carry on the Mellus tradition and give assurance of progress and service."

"Many firms and individuals sought to buy the Mellus publications, but in the judgment of myself and my associates, Panax appeared to be best suited to continue our operation in a manner that would be best

Romulus, Canton Townships Are the New Frontier

ROMULUS—What do all the numbers mean?

What's the significance of the number of new housing units in Western Wayne County?

First of all, the number housing units started in the first six months of each year can give planners and residents a fair idea of what is happening to the growth of our communities.

For instance, the spurt of development currently underway in low-tax Romulus Township has pushed that largely rural community into the top ten growing communities in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Monroe and Livingston Counties—the six-county area, as it is called.

Romulus has many open acres to be developed, a good start on industrial development, the metropolitan airport, an expressway running through its midsection, and fantastic opportunity for growth.

Westland, while not nearly as lucky in natural attractions such as industry and transportation, was once the growing spot in the area. Romulus was bound to catch up, and now it has, with Canton Township not far behind.

It is an indication that Romulus and Canton are logically next in line for extension of our urban Detroit sprawl, as the population moves west. It's also an indication to rural residents of those communities that it won't be long now before things begin to change.

There may be promising signs, too, for residents of Westland who have been apprehensive about apartment development. Starts on multiple-family dwelling units in Westland dropped from 605 in 1968 to only 108 in 1969. That's a hefty decrease.

Meanwhile, the City of Wayne added 61 new apartment or townhouse units in 1969, a fairly large increase for a largely developed community.

Inkster, with its tremendous middle and low income housing needs, appears to be making great strides toward realizing some of the community goals to improve housing conditions. Almost 200 new multiple-family units were begun in the first six months of 1969 in Inkster, higher than any community in the area except Romulus.

At a near standstill, actually, was Garden City, where only 18 new housing units were begun, all of them single-family units. Belleville, Huron and Van Buren registered similarly insignificant increases.

At any rate, Western Wayne County can certainly anticipate some further growth, right out to the county lines.

Romulus Topples Westland in Building Boom

WAYNE--Romulus Township has replaced Westland as the fastest growing community in Western Wayne County, the Detroit Region Dwelling Unit Report of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) shows.

The report, on the first six months of 1969, shows Romulus to be ninth in the six-county metropolitan area in residential housing building starts, and seventh in the number of multiple-family units (apartments and townhouses).

Westland, which ranked fourth in the six-county area in residential starts, and second in the multiple-family building starts, during the first six months of 1968, has dropped way down the list of communities in building activity this year.

In the first six months of 1969, Romulus Township had 430 building starts on residential housing, and 316 building starts on units in multiple-family dwellings.

Westland, which had 605 building starts on multiple-family dwelling units in the first six months of 1968, dropped to only 108 units in the first six months of 1969. In the same periods, Westland residential housing starts dropped from 801 in 1968 to 129 in 1969.

Of Western Wayne County communities, Canton Township took second place behind Romulus in number of housing starts. During the first six months of 1969, Canton recorded 88 single-family unit starts, and 176 multiple-family units starts, for a total of 264 housing units.

Westland was third with a total of 235, with Inkster a close fourth, with 215 housing starts. In Inkster, there were only 20 single-family starts, but 196 multiple-family unit starts.

Wayne was fifth with 90 starts total, 31 single-family and 61 multiple units. Sumpter was next with 41 starts, 33 single family, and 8 multiple units.

Over the entire area, there were 1339 new housing starts during the first six months of 1969. This number compares with the 4786 housing starts counted throughout Wayne County.

There were only nine demolitions of housing units in the entire area, for a total of 1330 new housing units in the entire area during 1969.

Of the area-wide housing starts, 457 were single-family, while 878, almost double the number, were units in multiple-family dwellings. Only four duplexes were recorded.

County Supervisors Weigh $162.3 Million Budget

A recommended Wayne County budget of $162.3 million for the 1969-70 fiscal year is being considered by the County Board of Supervisors.

The proposed budget, prepared by the County Board of Auditors, is $18.1 million higher than the current year's total outlays of $144.2 million.

The new budget will have no effect on the County tax rate, however. The recommended budget is $31.2 million below the total requested by all the County's 30-odd departments and agencies.

The Board of Supervisors this week began a month-long series of all-day budget hearings during which various County department heads will plead their cases for additional funds. Final action on the budget is scheduled tentatively for Oct. 30. The new fiscal year starts Dec. 1.

The proposed budget is the largest in Wayne County history.

The Board of Auditors attributed the budget increase to "the continuously increasing cost of services and materials that the County must purchase and the expanding needs of a growing community." A number of urgent needs are not financed in the recommended budget, the Auditors added.

Needs not financed in the budget, the Auditors reported, include an "urgent need" for additional office space for various departments, rehabilitation of the County Jail, Juvenile Court and the Old County Building, and renovations at the County Hospital.

The Auditors said larger staffs and new programs are needed by the courts, probation departments, Prosecutor's Office and Juvenile Court. They also cited a "great need" for additional parks and recreational facilities due to population increases. They called for a larger state share in the cost of a number of state-mandated services.

The Board of Auditors consists of Arthur A. Sumeracki, chairman; Richard H. Austin, vice-chairman; and John F. Williams, secretary.

This is the first budget to come before the directly-elected Board of Supervisors which took office this year.

The $18.1 million increase is expected to be financed by a $5.2 million rise in property tax revenue resulting from higher property values, an increase of $6.3 million in state and federal grants, nearly $1 million more in miscellaneous revenues, and $5.6 million carried over from the 1967-68 budget year.

A lump sum of $2 million was left unallocated by the Auditors.

In spite of the budget increase, only 18 new jobs are recommended for the entire County government which has a general fund payroll of some 6,000 employees.

The Auditors also recommended that County departments be required to save a total of $3,056,500 by not filling job vacancies as they occur.

The largest increase recommended for any department was earmarked for Wayne County General Hospital. The $32,331,755 earmarked for the hospital is a $1,035,202 increase. The outlay will be recouped by $23,182,300 in anticipated hospital revenues.

Seventeen more positions, including eight juvenile case workers, are recommended for Juvenile Court, which had requested 73 more employees. Some additional employees are also recommended for the courts and the Sheriff's Department.

The proposed budget includes $4.5 million for employee cost-of-living allowances which are provided under union contracts, $655,290 to finance union contracts and $975,000 recommended by the Civil Service Commission for pay hikes for employees not covered by contracts.

Sandstedt Named Circulation Chief

Arthur W. Sandstedt, for 17 years independent circulation auditor for Associated Newspapers, has been appointed full-time circulation director of the nine-member western Wayne County weekly newspaper chain.

SANDSTEDT

"Mr. Sandstedt has served us faithfully and fruitfully since 1952," declared ANP General Manager David J. Willett. "We are indeed fortunate that a man of his ability and extensive background in newspaper circulation has been added full-time to our staff."

He formed the Sandstedt Circulation Service 27 years ago when he came to Detroit.

Band Boosters to Meet

ROMULUS -- The Romulus High School Band and Orchestra Boosters will meet tomorrow (Thursday), Oct. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Band Room at the high school, 9650 South Wayne Road.

Mrs. May Muggelberg, club president, urged all parents with children in the instrumental music program to take interest in the Boosters group and give support to the music program by taking active part in the club.

Kiwanis To Install

ROMULUS -- The Installation Banquet for new officers and directors of the Romulus Kiwanis Club will be held tomorrow, Oct. 9 at Metro Inn, located on Merriman Road at I-94 Expressway, Edmund Bizek, newly elected president, announced.

The club will also hold Ladies Night in conjunction with installing ceremonies. The new officers for the coming year are: Bizek, president; James McCall, first vice-president; Robert Taylor, second vice-president; Robert Taepke, treasurer; and Andrew Lapota, secretary.

It was also announced that this year's Peanut Sale, based on incomplete returns, amounted to $745. It is expected that complete sales will near some $1,100.

GROUND-BREAKING PARTICIPANTS--Officials and residents of Romulus are shown above at the recent ground-breaking ceremonies of the first multifamily project slated for Romulus' Urban Renewal Area. The project is being built on the east side of Wayne Road between Beverly and Van Born Roads.

Kelsey-Hayes Company Building New Factory

ROMULUS-Kelsey-Hayes Company is building a new $20 million plant in Fremont, Ohio.

The plant will be used to machine rotors for the company's growing disc brake business and provide facilities for expanded operations in the future.

In announcing the expansion, W.D. MacDonnell, president of Kelsey-Hayes, said that the new plant "will eventually increase our disc brake production capacity by 50 per cent. With disc brakes expected to become standard equipment on most cars in 1972, this will enable us to maintain and expand our position as the leading supplier of disc brakes to the American automobile industry."

THE PLANT is being constructed on 208 acres of land in Rice Township in the Fremont area.

The 350,000-square-foot facility will be completed in January 1970 and in operation two or three months later.

Initially, the plant will employ about 50 people. The work force will be increased as operations are expanded in accordance with the needs of the company.

The new plant will be an extension of the company's existing operations in the Fremont area as well as a facility to meet future needs. Kelsey-Hayes has operated a foundry there since 1964. This facility employs 250 people in the production of disc brake rotor castings.

BOTH THE foundry and the new machining plant are part of the company's Wheel, Drum & Brake Division, headquartered in Romulus.

ON FIRE LANES

No Parking Law To Be Enforced

ROMULUS — Provisions of an Ordinance to regulate parking on certain streets in Romulus for the purpose of facilitating the flow of fire fighting vehicles and equipment will finally be enforced, Alfred J. Perry, township clerk, reported.

"No parking—Fire Route" signs have been ordered and will be posted, Wayne County Road Commission announced in a communication to Perry.

The road agency also reported that it is in the process of finalizing traffic control orders to establish "No parking" on additional streets.

THE TOWNSHIP BOARD adopted its Fire Lane Prohibited Parking Ordinance in April, 1968. It called for "No Parking" on the hydrant side of some 50 residential streets.

Delay in enforcement was caused in the main by traffic surveys and investigations by the State Police and Road Commission.

A series of contacts, plus communications from township officials: former Township Supervisor Edmund Bizek, Perry and Police Chief Jacob J. Koch resulted in last week's action on "No Parking" sign installations.

UM Survey On Drug Use Is Announced

ROMULUS — A recent study made by the University of Michigan Drug Education Committee revealed that most commonly used drugs, by students responding to the survey, were: marijuana or hashish, tobacco and alcohol.

The survey conducted among 1,000 University of Michigan students showed that a majority (55.9 percent) had never tried marijuana or hashish, while only 43% had never tried tobacco and mere 10.1 percent have never tried alcohol.

The report suggests that usage of non-narcotically prescribed drugs appear to be predominantly of an experimental nature. However, analysts found the 44.1 percent of students, who have used marijuana or hashish to be a considerably higher percent than figures reported in most recent college drug use surveys.

scheduled for completion in the early Summer of 1970. This facility will be located on a 14-acre parcel in the Thompson-Brown Airway Industrial Center located on Ecorse Road, between Merriman and Middlebelt Roads, one-half mile north of Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

The site is within a quarter of a mile of I-94 Expressway and just two miles east of the proposed I-275/I-94 Interchange.

Engineers for the handsome new structure are Nelson, Ostrom, Baskin, Berman & Associates, Associate Architect, James N. Lindenberg.

The General Contractor is the A. J. Etkin Construction Company of Oak Park, Michigan, one of the leading building contractors in this area.

THE BUILDING has been designed to allow future expansion. Initially it will include 95,000 square feet of warehouse area and 25,000 square feet devoted to office areas.

American Hospital Supply is the second firm to locate in the Airway Industrial Center developed by Thompson-Brown Company, which has fully developed sites from one acre up, and includes all the necessary utilities for industrial facilities including adequate-sized sewer and water, Class A concrete roads.

Already in operation in the Industrial Park is Pioneer-Detroit, Division of S.O.S. Consolidated Corporation, manufacturers of hollow metal door frames.

AMERICAN HOSPITAL SUPPLY was founded in 1922 and is currently operating from a warehouse, located in Allen Park.

American Hospital stated that this facility will be one of the first completely computerized and automated warehouse facility serving the medical profession in this area. It will also include other employee amenities such as, complete lunchroom facilities, completely carpeted and air-conditioned offices and will have nine truck bay facilities to handle incoming and outgoing freight.

The Thompson-Brown Company, who are the developers of the Airway Industrial Center, are also the developers who previously developed the Farmington Freeway Industrial Park in Farmington, Michigan.

The firm is one of the only total service real estate and development firms in the Michigan Area.

WSU Student Builds Car

DETROIT—A Wayne State University student has joined Detroit automakers by coming out with his own 1970 model auto. But it's not for sale.

The prototype automobile—the Ginetta G-12—is a sleek red hand-crafted road racing special GT built by Richard A. Petit, 35, as his master's degree project.

One more will be built for a cousin, David P. Conley, 27, who helped Petit in actual construction. And that's it. Both are Ford Motor Co. employees, which would create a conflict of interest if they go into production.

It's not likely they would sell too many anyway: They figure the car is worth about $56,000.

Petit and Conley, both of Allen Park, took 1,200 pounds of special clay, several hundred board feet of lumber, fiberglass and other materials, $8,000 in cash and about 9,600 man hours of work and turned them into a work of art. Literally. The car won a blue ribbon in the industrial design section of a Wayne State art exhibit.

The men value their time at $10 an hour. "We each spent an average of at least 30 hours a week for 20 months in actual construction of the car," says Petit. That's $48,000 worth of time and sweat, in addition to the cash outlay.

PETIT, WHO works in Ford's design center, had the idea, bought a Ginetta chassis, designed the car and engineered the basic concepts. Then Conley stepped in, chipped in about $1,000 and his experience as LaForest, who joined the Mellus staff in 1947, added that he was gratified to become affiliated with the Panax Corporation.

"Panax is ideally equipped and suited to help us continue to provide the best possible newspaper services for the Downriver area," LaForest said. "We have studied their operations in the publishing field with great care and have been much impressed by what we have seen."

"I believe that the interest and confidence Panax has shown in acquiring the Mellus publications is a remarkable tribute to the journalistic and business skill and foresight of William S. Mellus. Because of his capability and guidance, The Mellus Newspapers have reached a high position in the publishing field. I am confident that the traditions he has established will be continued and that we face a bright future in our association with Panax."

Total package: 1,160 pounds. Its length is 156 inches, overall width 65 inches, height 40 inches and it has 5 inches ground clearance.

Petit comments, "If it hadn't been for more than a year of planning, we'd really have been lost." For his efforts, he wound up with a dream car and a master's degree in industrial art from Wayne State.

Vietnamese War Must End ---Now

There is a movement currently among national politicians to create some new directions in the search for peace in Vietnam.

Good, it's about time.

Even in our small piece of American scenery, the Vietnamese war can be felt—many of our own friends and neighbors have suffered immensely because of this war.

This week a boy from Inkster is gone. Last week a boy from Plymouth. And while the slaughter is slowing, it shows no signs of stopping. We think war simply must be ended—as soon as possible—and without continued hand-wringing over "national honor."

National honor cannot be won for this nation by sending more of its young men to their deaths in Vietnam. But, perhaps, national honor could be redeemed by bringing our boys home, ending the killing and letting the Vietnamese live as they wish to live.

Adding our support to an undemocratic and really unpopular regime in Saigon cannot earn us national honor. Respecting the wishes of the Vietnamese people themselves—fighting in a war which is their own, may earn us the respect of other nations.

The Vietnamese people have suffered terribly because of this tragic war. But, did they suffer because they were being attacked by their own people in the North, or because other nations of the world—including our own—decided that the Vietnamese should not be allowed to have the government they wished to have.

Scarcely a knowledgeable foreign affairs expert now defends American intervention in Vietnam. The entire question now presented is: How do we get ourselves out of a war we should never have entered?

Anyone who says he has all the answers to the Vietnamese dilemma is fooling himself. We don't have the answers, either. But we do hope American leaders start worrying a little more about the lives of American men. We hope the casualty lists are read in human suffering, rather than in numbers.

The war must end. We all must make it clear.

Action Needed On Pollution

Air pollution in this automobile capitol of the world is no small problem, and, of course, scientists tell us that the very automobiles upon which we depend for transportation, and many of us, for our living, are also large contributors to the pollution problem.

It stands to reason that those of us who depend upon the auto industry for our livelihood—and all of us certainly would be affected by its ill health—should be in the forefront in the fight for air pollution control—whether from autos or from the dozens of other sources of air pollution that are obvious to us.

If the auto industry could do such a good job of defending the American people through its wartime production in the 1940's, it can also lead the fight to save our environment—if it wants to do it.

We are, all of us, part of the community of greater Detroit, and thus automobiles are part of our lives. If we work now to prevent air pollution, nothing can stop the popular movement. Let history say of Detroit that it did not add to, but helped to solve, the air pollution problem.

My Favorite Things

Education Was Her Beat!

Gail McKnight

Completing two years at Associated Newspapers as an educational writer, I find the education beat still continues to be "the news beat" for most suburban papers.

More than City Hall and more than any civic organization the education beat affects more people than any other. Despite this, citizens as a body seem to know less about education than most other topics.

In terms of money, education is often the biggest employer in a local community, with its budget often ten times larger than the city or township budget.

More importantly, education is where the news is being made.

It is education that may force the State Legislature to come up with total fiscal reform.

It is the school teachers and their strikes that are showing how inadequate and unenforceable the no-strike laws are for public employees.

It was a school district like Nankin Mills that paid the highest tax rate in the State, yet was forced out of existence. Even with levying 45.50 mills, Nankin Mills just could not afford to exist.

It is in the school districts such as Livonia where students rights are the topic, especially in the areas of free expression and in dress and grooming codes.

It is in the school districts where "equal rights" takes on a new meaning. More and more people are realizing that children don't pick the school district they are born into, and that every child deserves an equal chance for a good education.

It is because of controversies on grooming codes and half-day sessions in school districts that the courts are making decisions in a whole new area.

It is the people residing in the industry-poor school districts that pay the heaviest taxes; it is the school taxes, not the city or township taxes, that are putting the pinch on many middleclass pocketbooks.

And the list could go on and on. Education is making the news, the kind of news that affects people more directly than any other kind of news.

If I have one hope for education, it is that more parents and citizens become involved in a phase of education, be it as a PTA member, as a dance chaperone, as a teaching aide, or as a citizen at a Board of Education meeting.

So few people realize the opportunity to have an effect on education, to be a part of education—if they would only take the initiative.

Evil Lurks In Classrooms

By Jim Fitzgerald

My mother used to send me off to school with warnings to be careful crossing streets and to study hard or I'd grow up to be a street cleaner.

As my kids returned to school recently, I wanted them to beware of sex education, boys with long hair, and girls in short skirts.

A parent can't be too careful these days.

Every sensible person knows sex is dirty, except between husband and wife if not too often. Certainly our school kids shouldn't be learning where they came from. They're liable to grow hair on their palms, or something.

Besides, my son watches TV so he already knows why shapely girls in bikinis climb all over a guy. It's because the guy drives a new Dodge.

Some kids try to give us adults a hard time on this long-hair and short-skirt business. They say Jesus Christ and George Washington had long hair. And mini-skirts are where it's at, the same as Mother's phony chest, and what's so deadly about skin above the knees, anyway?

One nifty young man even had the guts to claim it's unconstitutional for a school to deny him an education unless he gets a haircut. "As long as I pass inspection at home," he said, "no stuffy teacher has the right to tell me how to dress or wear my hair. As long as I'm clean, I'm not hurting anyone."

That's not how it works, of course. A teacher in a nearby school explained the long-hair danger this way: "Shaggy hair is a distraction to all students. The youngsters can't learn with long-haired boys in the classroom, and I can't teach."

"You mean you all keep looking at the long hair, the same as you'd keep looking a little lamb if it followed Mary to school?" I asked.

"Exactly," said this teacher who is bald and cross-eyed and has a nervous tic which causes him to pull on both his ears every 2 minutes. "We simply can't have any distractions."

Any sensible adult would certainly go along with that. Except I do know one teacher who said a strange thing. He said:

"Teachers are not barbers or policemen or fashion experts. We are in the classroom to teach, and the kids are there to learn. The amount of hair in a classroom has absolutely no relationship to how much can be learned in that classroom. Remember how Albert Einstein wore his hair? I'm fed up with all this nonsense. If the adults would quit making such an unholy fuss about how the kids look, there'd be no problem and dammit, you newspaper reporters might have time to notice the most kids look a lot more decent than their elders. Did you ever go to a supermarket and eye the fat old dames in curlers and bursting slacks? Or the pot-bellied, skinny-legged old men in crew cuts and shorts?"

Of course, this teacher is obviously a commie, or at least a pervert. I figured that out before he opened his mouth. He has a beard.

My mother didn't raise any street cleaners.

Democrats May Pick Levin

By Richard McKnight

Michigan Democrats, believing themselves to be in some disarray as the 1970 elections approach, took a survey of voters, and found out that they were, indeed, in some disarray.

In fact, one political pundit could find nothing better to say about the Democrats than that they were intelligent enough to have a survey taken to see how they were doing.

All eyes are on the Governor's chair, of course, currently being held down by William Milliken, an intelligent, upstanding, well-imaged Republican who seems to have few enemies.

Generally, Milliken gets along well with Michigan voters.

The Democrats, faced with a candidate like Milliken, could be expected to pull in the covers up over their heads and snooze it out until 1974.

But there is hope for the Democrats, in the person of three rather attractive candidates, all of whom have demonstrated at least some interest in the gubernatorial nomination.

First is Attorney General Frank Kelley, whose fight against organized crime has earned him a relatively conservative reputation, and has at the same time kept him out of some more controversial battles. Kelley would almost certainly represent the old elements of the Democratic party in any primary battle. Kelley may not run, however, and may wait for the Senatorial contest in 1972 against Robert Griffin.

Second is State Senator Roger Craig, the hard-fighting leader of much of the liberal wing of the party. Craig, speaking in Westland last week, left a far less radical image with the audience than might have been expected. An appealing, attractive candidate, Craig's major problems are his identification with liberal causes unpopular with more conservative Democrats, and his likely difficulty in attracting high-level party support.

"Craig in '70" buttons have been conspicuously present at all major Democratic party events recently. Craig is running, and his support, if not large in numbers of workers, is intense in its loyalty to him.

Also in the race is State Senator Sander Levin of Berkeley, perhaps one of the most scholarly and intelligent men in the Senate. Levin looks like a college professor, which is one reason why he has been passed-over by some party members who are looking for a more exciting image for 1970.

Levin has wide-based party support. His own choice for Democratic Party Chairman, James McNeely, succeeded Levin in that post earlier this year. He is acceptable to both ends of the party—but is discounted by some liberals who feel he is too close to old-line party power blocs.

Levin has made a task for himself in the Senate, as minority leader, and in the Democratic party organization, as a peacemaker, and has earned both plaudits and brickbats from various sectors of the party.

The fact that Levin is Jewish, while not seeming so terribly important to most voters, is apparently quite important to some party leaders, who think the religious question would rear its head in a Levin campaign.

At any rate, Levin may yet emerge as the one candidate who can join both ends of the Democratic party, and all the middle ground, into one organization that can challenge Governor Milliken.

From a strategic standpoint, Sander Levin seems a logical choice. Whether logic will remain a large contributing factor in the Democratic choice in 1970 remains to be seen.

Lift Up Your Head

Month Has 31 'Days'

By Rosemary Kozielski

So-and-so days and such-and-such weeks have gotten to be so common as to be almost laughable. Nobody can deny the importance of such events as National Fire Prevention Week or Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. A couple of other serious occasions during the month of October are White Cane Safety Day, Oct. 15, and National Cleaner Air Week, Oct. 19 to 25.

But many other weeks that have been proclaimed are of dubious importance. Would you believe, for instance, that this week is "National Test Your Battery Week." Needless to say, this earthshaking event is being sponsored by the Association of American Battery Manufacturers.

Well-known historical characters are also favorite subjects for holidays. This month, Americans will honor Christopher Columbus and Leif Ericson for doing the same thing—discovering America. But there are historical characters of lesser import who are also honored. How many people do you suppose will honor Francis Bellamy? In case you're wondering he's the fellow who wrote the Pledge of Allegiance.

America, of course, isn't the only country where such things are celebrated. Included among this month's holidays is Leyden Day, for instance; on this day in 1574, Spaniards abandoned the Siege of Leyden, a day which people of the Netherlands feel is worth celebrating.

National Foundation Day in Korea commemorates the legendary descent from heaven of Tangun, 4300 years ago, and the founding of Korea. Also this month, Koreans celebrate Hangul or Korean Alphabet Day, commemorating the invention of the 24-letter phonetic alphabet in 1446.

Kraut, Pork 'N' Apple Dinner Season begins Oct. 15 and will last for a month. Mom might also want to add spaghetti to the shopping list in honor of Macaroni Week, beginning Oct. 16. Sweetest Day is fast approaching, too; it's another one of those days you'd swear are inspired by a candy-makers' conspiracy.

Don't forget that it's also Biscuit and Muffin Month, Fish 'N' Seafood Parade time, Pizza Festival Time Month, National Wine Festival, and probably by no coincidence, National Restaurant Month.

I've got a suggestion for November. How about National Diet month.

This is the first time I've written to the letter box.

"A helper I hope"

TO THE EDITOR:

A big thank you is extended to our township officials for their prompt action in dealing with the hunting menace. Since the situation has become so grave, it is comforting to know our community leaders are doing something NOW rather than waiting until someone is killed before acting.

Their concern and quick action to save lives and property is greatly appreciated.

SYLVIA WEEDON

TO THE EDITOR:

As the result of a few complaints to the Township Board concerning the noise by an early squirrel season, the board almost made the mistake of passing new restrictions on gun owners.

Ninety-Five percent of the squirrel hunters use a shotgun, noisy, yes! but dangerous at five hundred feet or more? definitely not.

A pellet from a shut gun wouldn't penetrate one page of this newspaper at five hundred feet.

My advice to the disturbed residents is, when you see a violation call the authorities and sign a complaint, don't make responsible sportsman suffer for the lack of common sense that a few hunters display.

Hunters police your own ranks, or someday not too distant, you won't have a gun or a place to hunt.

S.K. PULLEN

TO THE EDITOR:

ORGANIZATION, according to Funk & Wagnalls, has several definitions, one of which I think of is: a number of individuals systematically united for some end or work. SERVICE also has several meanings, 1. assistance or benefit afforded another: to render a service, to be of service, 2. a useful result or product of labor which is not a tangible commodity.

SERVICE CLUB an organization to promote community welfare and further the interests of its members.

To me, the only service organization in Huron Township is the Jaycees and Jaycettes organizations. True there are other organizations in town but they omitted a very important word by their actions and that is service.

WHO BESIDES the Jaycees and Jaycettes have had teen-age Road-E-O, Easter Egg Hunts, Trap Shoots with gun safety explained, government forums, "Get out to Vote" for school and township elections, have sent Township children to camp during the summer. Have held parades, Memorial Day and Christmas, has had Christmas parties for children, have put into effect a child safety program "Helping Hands", have given four needy baskets a year filled to the brim with goodies. Have donated goods to Ypsi State Hospital, have contributed to the Down River Child Guidance Clinic, have given a Huron graduate a $150 scholarship, have had a youth fitness program. Not to mention the origination of the idea and most of the leg work for the Huron Centennial at great sacrifice to our club, I might add.

These are just a few of the things we have done that I could think of off the top of my head. Fine, you say, that's very commendable but why this letter?

Because, my friends, each of these projects takes MONEY. We have tried very, very hard to do something good for our community and each time, in the last few years, we have been "kicked in the shins" for it by non-participation.

OUR LAST venture to raise money for a boy's college scholarship failed. This was a Centennial Dance where we had hoped the citizens of Huron Township would be more than willing to dust off their clothes and join us for a fun evening for a most worthy cause.

It seems our citizens are more interested in their TV sets than to try and help a service organization SERVE. Only two Township Board members attended, one a Jaycee and the other a citizen. Thanks Ray. No one from the school board was there, and this was to benefit one of our students. And only a few citizens from the Township. To make matters worse, there were no Jaycees from the District there.

I might add that those who cared enough for this organization and their community and this cause, had a ball!! We had a good hall, tremendous band and good food. It's too bad it cost us $50 to give you this good time.

It is time for all the people of our community to care a little and support our programs. It does not go into our pocket or for our personal pleasure.

Every project we have to raise money goes right back into community projects that benefit everyone.

WITH SO many of our young adults on pot, LSD and an attitude that the world owes them a living, isn't it nice to have among you a group who believes:

(THE JAYCEE CREED) WE BELIEVE: That faith in God gives meaning and purpose of life; That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise; That government should be of laws rather than of men; That earth's great treasure lives in human personality; And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

(THE JAYCETTE CREED) WE BELIEVE: We become better women through active membership. In serving our community as a family we strengthen our approach, Faith in God is

O.E.S. Marks 79th Birthday Event

Belleville Chapter No. 73, O.E.S., celebrated its 79th birthday and annual past matrons' and past patrons' night Wednesday, Oct. 1. Present for a roast beef dinner served by the Rainbow Girls were over 100 members and guests. Tables were festive with bowls of fall flowers and ceramic favors of corn shocks and pumpkins.

The address of welcome was given by the worthy matron Irene Skaggs and the response by Beatrice Boldt, president of the Past Matrons' Association. The invocation was given by the Chaplain Joyce Maki.

Miss Margaret E. Hope, a member of the order for 75 yrs., cut the birthday cake which was made in the form of an open Bible.

Honored guests introduced after the re-opening of chapter were Past Grand Organist Sally Wallace, Past Grand Adah Elena Drewyous, Grand Committee women Sylvia Ballelli and Elda Bohl; Grand representative Mildred Finlayson; Past Matrons and Past Patrons, Life Members and Honorary Members, Matrons and Patrons.

Life Membership Certificates were presented to Anna Jane Quick and Muriel Smith.

The initiatory work was put on by the Past Matrons and Patrons of Belleville Chapter and several guests from other Wayne County Chapters.

Home Ceremony Unites Couple

Durlene Jo Tononi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tononi, of 15435 Martinsville road, Belleville, and Bernard P. Raymond were united in marriage Saturday, September 13, in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raymond, of 22080 Karr road, Belleville. Judge James Stone presided at the single ring rite performed before a background of palms, candelabras, and red and white gladioli arrangements.

Given in marriage by her father, Durlene was dressed in a white brocade ensemble fashioned with a sleeveless, scoop necked bodice with a high-rise waistline. Her companion coat was belted at the back and accented with silver sequined buttons.

In lieu of a veil, she chose to intertwine white satin ribbon among her cascade of curls. Her bouquet in colonial style was comprised of red and white carnations and ribbon streamers.

AS HER aunt's maid of honor, Fae Tononi, of Flemington, New Jersey, donned a short, pink crepe frock in the empire mode with pink and white flowers embroidered into the waistband. She carried a bouquet of pink-tipped white carnations.

Don Quick, of Livonia, was asked to be best man.

Some 130 guests from Flemington, New Jersey; Blissfield, Brooklyn, Adrian, St. Clair Shores, Rochester, Grand Rapids, and neighboring cities attended the reception which followed at the Raymond home. Mrs. Tononi wore for the wedding a shocking pink A-line jersey dress with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations tipped in pink.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Raymond chose a navy sheath with harmonizing accessories and a corsage of blue-tipped white carnations.

Following their reception, the newlyweds honeymooned for a week at Houghton Lake and Northern Michigan.

The new Mrs. Raymond attended Belleville High School and was formerly employed as a secretary at the University of Michigan's Children's Psychiatric Hospital.

Her husband graduated from Belleville High in 1967 and prior to entering the U.S. Navy, was employed at Bathey's, in Plymouth. He was scheduled to leave today from Grosse Ile Naval Air Station for a new assignment in San Diego, California.

Forty-five million North American families cook out at least once a week. Last year 450,000 tons of briquets were used. If divided into states, each state of the nation would use 208 railroad boxcars of charcoal briquets every year.

Virginia Wilsey Marries In Fox River Grove, Ill.

The Methodist Church in Fox River Grove, Illinois was the setting for the afternoon wedding which united Virginia Eileen Wilsey and Allen H. Hauck in holy matrimony. The one o'clock nuptial rite was read by the Rev. G. Wyman and the double ring service was used.

An arrangement of white poms and carnations graced the center altar as Virginia approached the sanctuary with her father. For her wedding day she selected a toe-touching creation of white silk organza and sheer, beaded Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline and wristpoint sleeves and the modified A-line skirt cascaded into a chapel train.

Seed pearls accented her organza bow headpiece which was centered with a fabric rose bud and her imported illusion bouffant veil drifted to shoulder length.

Virginia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Wilsey, of 14041 Lenmore road, Belleville. Allen is the son of Allen A. Hauck, of Fox River Grove, Illinois.

THE BRIDE'S close friend, Mrs. Robert Crumley, of Farmington, was asked to assume the duties of honor attendant when Mrs. Serena Hardwick became ill and was unable to travel.

Bridesmaids were Beverly Wilsey, of Belleville, and Mrs. Richard Wilsey, of New Boston, sister and sister-in-law of the bride, respectively; and Mrs. Di Ann Young, of Zion, Illinois.

Wearing gowns made by Mrs. Frank Jahner, of Belleville, the quartet appeared in ice blue sateen A-line frocks with belled sleeves and high, rolled necklines set off by small gold heart necklaces, gifts from the bride. Pale blue velvet ribbon was used to clasp the organza trains which fell from the shoulders. The honor attendant's gown was distinguished by a dark blue organza train.

Their headpieces were cabbage roses with shoulder-length veils made in the same fabric as their trains and their bouquets were comprised of white and light blue poms and blue ribbon.

Three-year old Sharon Wilsey, daughter of the Richard Wileys, of New Boston, was flowergirl at her aunt's wedding. Her dress was a miniature version of the matron of honor's and she carried a pigtail bouquet arranged by Mrs. Crumley. Her brother, Scott, who's four years old, carried out the role of ringbearer.

HEADING THE list of groomsmen was Kenneth R. Hauck who was best man for his brother. Ushers included Morris DeReadt, his cousin from West Chicago, Illinois; Tom Wasmer, of Prospect Heights, Illinois; and Richard Wilsey, of New Boston, the bride's brother.

In carrying out the blue theme of the wedding, the men were garbed in light blue tuxedos.

Harold Stebbins was to be soloist at the wedding but, due to an automobile accident enroute to the ceremony was unable to be present. Later at the reception, though, he, James Flemming, and Tom Wassmer, who are known as "The Brite Set", serenaded the newlyweds with their favorite number, "More" and the song they will soon be recording, "What Ya Gonna Do."

The American Legion Hall, in Algonquin, Illinois, was reserved for the reception which followed. Some 125 relatives and friends were greeted by Mrs. Wilsey in a gold satin and brocade dress with harmonizing accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Following their week-long honeymoon at Lake Odessa, Michigan, the young couple made their home at the Arrowhead Apartments, in Algonquin.

A 1966 graduate of Belleville High School, Virginia was formerly employed at the A.S.C. Tabulating Corporation, in Lake Bluff, Illinois. Her husband, a 1962 graduate of Cary Grove High School, in Cary, Illinois, served for two years with the U.S. Army, attended Elgin Community College, and is now an employee of the American Can Research Company at Barrington, Illinois.

MRS. BRANK E. RANDALL

Randall-Krystyniak Wed At St. Anthony's

Double ring vows were exchanged Saturday, September 27, between Kathy Krystyniak and Cpl. Brank E. Randall. The Rev. John B. Rose presided at the six o'clock nuptial mass which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krystyniak, of 48730 Judd road, Belleville, and the son of the senior Brank E. Randalls, of 47079 Ayres road, Belleville.

The altar at St. Anthony's Catholic Church was adorned with vases of white gladioli and orchid mums as Kathy approached on the arm of her father, Michael Ives at the organ accompanied Mrs. Stanley Kloc as she sang "The Lord's Prayer," "O Perfect Love," and "Ave Maria."

THE BRIDE, who made her own gown and veil and those of all her attendants, appeared in lace over satin fashioned with an empire bodice, Sabrina neckline, A-line skirt, and long, tapered sleeves. A train in matching fabric buttoned at the shoulders to add back interest.

Her bouffant veil drifted to mid-back length from a lace petaled headdress frosted with seed pearls and she carried miniature white carnations and seven red roses.

Mrs. Richard Wallman flew in from Lawton, Oklahoma to serve as matron of honor for her sister. Another sister, Linda, came from Western Michigan University to be bridesmaid and two younger sisters, 12-year old Christine, and nine-year old Theresa, served as junior attendants.

Identically dressed, the bridal coterie's gowns were in orchid crystal satin double with chiffon Peter Pan collars and bell sleeves with lace accents. Their matching bouffant veils were caught to orchid flowers and each carried a basket of white and orchid pomps.

Sheila Michels, five, daughter of the Richard Michels of Warren, was dressed as a miniature bride and carried a tiny white basket filled with white pomps. Her seven-year old brother, Tommy, was ringbearer.

BEST MAN was David Falk, who came from Indianapolis, Indiana to serve as best man for his cousin. Ushers included Walter Scott Krystyniak, cousin of the bride from Bay City; Brian and Charles Randall, brothers of the bridegroom; Michael Krystyniak, who flew home from St. Joseph Seminary at Edgartown, Wisconsin for his sister's wedding; and their cousin, John Gasdlo, home from Central Michigan University for the occasion.

Following their reception at the U.A.W. Hall, in Ypsilanti, where some 250 guests assembled, the newlyweds departed for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan.

Both Kathy and Brank are Belleville High School graduates. Prior to the wedding she was employed by the University of Michigan. A U.S. Marine for the past three years, Brank has just returned from 18 months duty in Okinawa. For the next 10 months, he will be stationed at Cherry Point, North Carolina where he and his wife will make their home.

Annual Jr. Study Club Card Party Draws Full House

The annual Benefit Card Party, sponsored by the Junior Study Club of Belleville, was held Wednesday evening, October 1, at Belleville Junior High School. Some 280 patrons, attended from Belleville and surrounding cities and enjoyed dessert, tea, and coffee prior to the games.

Sharlene Tator, general chairman, later welcomed the group and then turned the microphone over to Sue Stevens who conducted the drawing for door prizes which had been donated by local merchants.

Royce Smith Sinclair's three prizes went to Beverly Martin, Betty Mida, and Gwen Liebler; Manning's to Sue Pieknik, Dancer's, Helen Nass; Harcas Florist, Bernadine Schaefer; Hook's Cleaners, Frisha Terwilliger; Don Raymond, Standard Oil, Barb Brendtke; and Hamilton Hardware, Josephine Tononi.

Still others taking home goodies were Leona DeWard, Kureth's Apparel; Fern Ellward, the centerpiece for the refreshments table; Alice Hennells, Coy Kendall Florist; Joy Hill, Belleville Enterprise; Eunice Demick and Carole Sobel, Mel's Cleaners; Mary I. Price and Mary Hamilton, Hoot's Kentucky Fried Chicken; and Mary Anne Hudge, Moss Brothers.

Hayward's two donations went to Brenda Neupert and Mary Sakewski; Demetri's Hairstyles to Eileen Graham; Home Gallery, Karen Agner; Madelyn's Beauty Shop, Mary Anne Drysdale; Cloverdale, Ginger Schimmel; Gamble's, Ruth Sharp; Foodville, Molly Points; Box's Jewelry, Bea Needham; Wayne Federal Savings, Crela Bradish; and Avon Products from Mrs. Doreen Post, K. Keitel, Marge Potter, and Elsie Roberts.

THE CONTENTS of the hope chest, divided into five groupings, were won by three area ladies and two from out of town. Kathleen Rork, of 6854 Morton Taylor road, took home the handknitted a f g h a n and floral arrangement.

Evelyn Lenz, of 32217 Twelve Mile road, Farmington, won the hooked rug, robe, slippers, toaster and mixer covers, and pot holders.

The tablecloth and napkins, bath set, and floral centerpiece were awarded to Hazel Schaaf, of 529 Columbia avenue, Belleville. Leona Kelly, of Northville, won the antiqued milk can, crewel-embroidered picture, and feather arrangement.

The final group, a hand-knitted poncho, placemats and napkins, apron, and pillow slips are now in the home of Lillian Janowski, of Sunrise lane, Belleville.

Those whose scores were highest at each individual table were presented the table prizes, floral and candle centerpieces.

VIEW FROM THE STAGE--This was the scene last Wednesday evening as some 280 area women attended the Junior Study Club's Annual Benefit Card Party at Belleville Junior High School. Each year the Club sponsors the event and uses the proceeds for a charitable or community need. In the past the profits were used to purchase a television set for Belvil Community Hospital; to erect a sign at the Fred C. Fischer Library; to aid M.Y.I. Students; to provide a scholarship for a Belleville High School senior, etc.

MISS WARDELL

Students Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Wardell, of 36980 Chase road, Romulus, parents of the bride-elect, are announcing the couple's engagement and nuptial date.

Miss Wardell, who attended Romulus Schools through the 10th grade, graduated from University High School, in Spokane, Washington. She is currently attending Southwestern Business College, in Houston.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Parks, of New Orleans, Louisiana, is working toward his degree in business management at the University of Louisiana. He is also employed by the Shell Oil Company.

An October 25 wedding at the Berachah Church, in Houston, Texas, is being planned by Susan Kaye Wardell and Charles Michael Parks, both of Houston.

Second Son For Zywickis

DUAL EVENT AT COOK'S

THE CELEBRATION Sunday at the home of Bob and Agnes Cook, on Morton Taylor road, was a dual affair in that it introduced two new members of the clan to friends and relatives. The Cook's own new addition, Carrie Ann, and their month-old nephew, Frank Stanley Wisniewski, were the tiny honored guests for the day.

It was also Carrie's christening day and she received the sacrament at St. Anthony's with Father Albert J. Folta presiding. Her God-parents, Neva and Joe Wisniewski of Belleville, were among some 86 adults who attended the buffet dinner which followed. While their parents visited, the younger set enjoyed pony cart rides on Connie, David, and Mark Cook's little pony.

Carrie Ann made her debut September 11 at Mount Carmel Hospital, Detroit. Her weight was recorded at 6 lbs. - 14 ozs.

Her cousin, named for his grandfathers, Frank Wisniewski and Stanley Atwell, arrived September 2 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. The first son for the Wisniewskis (who reside in Ypsilanti) he weighed 6 lbs. - 15 ozs.

Jr. High Students Hold Fashion Show

BELLEVILLE-"NEW FASHION MATH" was the title for the Belleville Junior High School fashion show held Oct. 2.

Miss Marjorie Stack, educational stylist for Simplicity Pattern Company presented pointers on how to play the exciting new fashion game. She showed how smart planning can make your wardrobe multiply.

The fashions shown were made in New York City by Simplicity and worn by students chosen to be models.

JUMPERS WERE modeled by Seri Leppiaho, Sue

Malmsten, Mary Orskey and Charlotte Whitmer.

Debbie Rice, Karen Bolton, Chris Armatis and Mary Ann Haynes modeled "Skirts 'n' Shirts"

"Two by two" great new double-dressing looks modeled by Mary Griffith, Pam Prewitt, Pat Davenport and Beth John.

Mrs. Carolyn Hyde of the Home Economics department was in charge of this program. Miss Karen Roberts and her students made the colorful stage decorations.

Seventh and eighth grade girls, parents and teachers attended the fashion show.

Nursery Sessions Started

ROMULUS—Nursery school sessions began Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 9:30 a.m. in the Kindergarten Room at the Special Services Building. (Old Cory School, 7335 Washington).

The program is sponsored by Western Wayne County YWCA and is under the supervision of Mrs. Marie Byrd.

Nursery Mother's meetings are being held on Tuesday and Thursday mornings to brief the mothers on nursery procedures and to acquaint them with YWCA programs, activities and interest groups.

Miss Aileen Grey of the WYCA field staff, reported there are still openings for more children on both mornings.

To be eligible children must be between 2½ and six years of age, toilet trained and able to cope.

Pegouski Gathering

The Pegouski Family held its annual Wiener Roast at the Pegouski farm Sunday afternoon and evening.

The group included Mom and Dad of McKean Road, Willis, children Wally, Jerry and Issy with their families of Willis, Eileen and hers from Detroit, Bea and Elsie with their children from Belleville. Alma Mary and her two of Ypsilanti.

Also Evis with her family traveling from Wayne. Last but not least was brother John and his date Carol Krystyniak.

Unable to attend were Marvin and his six from Denver and Margaret with her three from Cope, S.C.

IN ALL about 30 members of the family had beautiful weather to enjoy a hay ride, wiener roasting, plenty of sticky marshmallows and an added surprise for everyone's enjoyment was the porky Wally had Bar-B-Qing from early Sunday morning.

The family was joined by many Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins from Detroit and surrounding areas. The family gathering represented four generations.

The evening was concluded with card playing and drawing exchange names for Christmas.

GRANDFIELD, OKLA., NEWS: "Although probably the major share of blame for the breakdown in our court system can be placed squarely on the legal profession and social do-gooders, much of it can also be blamed on citizens who fail to accept their responsibilities when called to jury duty and testifying in court."

RETURN ENGAGEMENT--Junior Study Club President Pat Kissel (standing) greets four patrons who have supported the club's annual benefit card party each year since its inception. Making up a foursome at Belleville Junior High School last Wednesday evening were (clockwise) Mrs. Edward Wright, Mrs. Andrew Krebs, Mrs. Richard Hamilton and Mrs. Hazel Schaal.

Pictorial Report on Kiwanis Installation Dinner

SHARING A TABLE—Ladies were special guests last Tuesday evening as the Belleville Kiwanis Club held installation of officers at Rogalle's. Sharing a table at dinner were the Joe Loria and Art Hills (both men are past presidents of the club.) Caught by our photographer as they chatted were Joe Loria and Joy Hill with Mary Loria across from them. Art Hill is hidden from view.

NOTED ATTORNEY SPEAKS—Ralph Keyes, noted Ann Arbor attorney, was guest speaker at the Belleville Kiwanis Club's annual installation dinner. Keyes, an honorary member of the club, was installing officer for the 23rd year, a long-standing tradition with the local organization. His keynote address centered on today's relaxed manners with drugs and narcotics and what concerned Americans must do about the situation.

INTERESTED LISTENERS—One of the Belleville Kiwanis Club's newest members, Dick Bode, and his wife, Dora, were among those attending last Tuesday evening's dinner party at Rogalle's. They were caught listening to the guest speaker, Ralph Keyes, following installation of Kiwanis officers for 1969-1970.

Sumpter's Committee To Meet

SUMPTER—The Sumpter Township Citizens Advisory Committee will hold a meeting at the Sumpter Township Hall, located at 23485 Sumpter Road, tonight (Wednesday, Oct. 8) starting at 7:30 p.m.

Seymour Fenster, chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee, announced that all interested citizens are invited to attend.

Jack B. Pullen Is AF Graduate

BELLEVILLE—Airman Jack B. Pullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Pullen of 14285 Elwell Road, Belleville, Mich., has graduated from a U.S. Air Force technical school of Sheppard AFB, Tex. He was trained as a medical services specialist.

The airman is a graduate of Belleville High School and attended Northern Michigan University.

Willis Pharmacist Gets Promotion

LANSING: R. Thomas Cook, a registered pharmacist from Willis, has been appointed Director of Professional Services on the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association executive staff.

Cook joined the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association as Director of Membership Services on June 22, 1968.

He received his bachelor of science degree from Ferris State College in June, 1967. He served his internship at Kirk's Pharmacy in Belleville and following registration, served as a staff pharmacist at the College Pharmacy in Ypsilanti.

WHILE IN college, Cook was a member of the APHA-MSPA student chapter and the Phi Delta Chi fraternity. He is a past member of the Washtenaw County Pharmaceutical Society and the Augusta Township Jaycees.

Cook's primary responsibilities with MSPA will be in the area of membership services, liaison with local associations, governmental programs, poison prevention and drug abuse education.

In addition to added responsibilities on the MSPA staff, Cook has been appointed administrative agent for the Michigan Pharmaceutical Service Corporation which currently processes prescription claim forms for The Office of Economic Opportunity (anti-poverty program) health care project in Detroit.

Belleville Lake Up For Sale

BELLEVILLE—Belleville Lake can be purchased from the Detroit Edison Company for the sum of $400,000.

The firm informed the Van Buren Township Board at a recent meeting that its offer to sell the lake is still available.

Edward C. Stoelton, township supervisor, is interested in the maintenance end of lake ownership and reported that many persons are concerned with the feasibility of township takeover under state and federal recreation allocations.

It would require a vote by the township residents on final approval or rejection.

Stoelton stated that he will contact federal officials in Washington on availability of funds.

VB GETS OFFER

He added that the Township has never requested federal or state aid for recreational programs. A check with agencies involved will be made.

SMILING A HELLO—Catching the eye of a friend across the room, Mrs. Eben Smith (Evelyn) was caught by our photographer as she waved a little hello. Mrs. Smith and her husband were among the 80 who attended installation of Kiwanis officers last Tuesday evening at Rogalle's. Larry Pink is in the background.

Planners Approve Lot Size Changes

BELLEVILLE—The Van Buren Planning Commission has recommended approval of a zoning ordinance change that calls for an increase in lot size for single family residences from a frontage of 60 feet to 75 feet.

The Township Board had already approved the zoning change in the belief that the Planning Commission had approved.

Edward C. Stoelton, supervisor reported that it must be referred by the planners to the Township Board again, in order that proper zoning change procedures be followed.

Stoelton disclosed before the commission that state statutes require a minimum of 65 feet and that local requirements should exceed state demands.

He stated that the increase is necessary due to increasing size of houses.

Belleville Jolted by Bentley

TIGERS HEAD FOR ALLEN PARK

By JIM BRADLEY

Belleville had its Suburban Six championship hopes crushed Friday night when Livonia Bentley dealt the Tigers their second league loss, 32-12, although it was a much closer game than the score indicated.

Now the Belleville eleven must pull itself together to face the rest of its rugged schedule, meeting Allen Park, Trenton, Plymouth

Ypsilanti, and John Glenn.

With a packed Bentley stadium crowd cheering them on, Belleville and Livonia battled through a scoreless first quarter with the play being just about even. The most serious threat of the initial stanza came when the host Bulldogs moved to Belleville's 20 on their first series of downs. But a 15-yard penalty killed the drive.

Belleville's failure to move the ball from deep in their own end led to the first Bentley score. Garrade Pettus signaled for a fair catch on his own eight-yard line. The Tigers couldn't move past their 26 and Dick Wenzel punted from near his goal line.

Bentley took the punt on Belleville's 44 and began their touchdown march. Mike Day ramblled 14 yards to the Tiger 30 and a 15-yard face mask grabbing penalty moved the ball to the 15. Bulldog Quarterback Bob Walden stepped back on the next play and fired a 15-yard strike to end Dan Koch who had beaten defensive halfback Glen Reinhackel in the right corner of the endzone. Walden passed to Dave Rick for the two-pointer and an 8-0 lead.

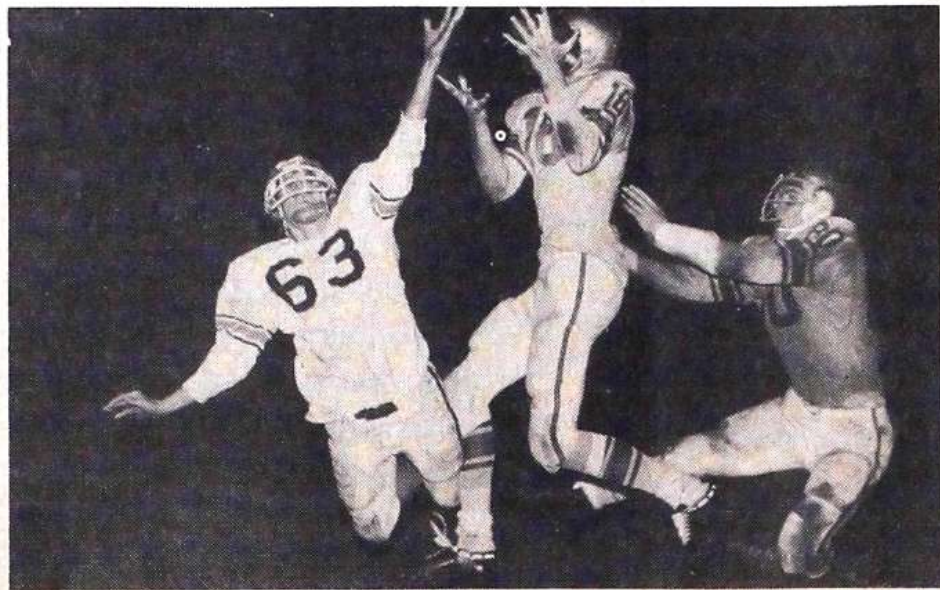

STOP SIGN AHEAD Romulus' Rance Thomas (with ball) finds the path block by a Hamtramck griddier in their first and only Twin-Valley Conference test. The Eagles managed to salvage a tie in this one, but were shutout by Lincoln Park last week to remain winless in nonconference competition. Coach George Pratt's gridders will have another tough match this Friday when they run up against league-leader Ecorse who has compiled victories over Willow Run and defending champ, Rouge.

The score came with 10:24 left in the first half and Bentley scored two minutes later. Again it was Belleville's inability to move the ball that led to the score. Ed Gielinski ran the kick-off back to his own 37, but Bentley lost six yards after a bad pitchout. Mike Fant, Belleville's leading gainer in the game with 57 yards, got only one this time. A third-down play failed and Wenzel lofted a high punt to the Bentley 36-yard-line.

Koch, who played an outstanding game both ways, gathered in the spiral on his 36 and raced down the left sidelines with blockers in front of him. Three Belleville players had good shots at him, but missed as the lanky end returned the punt 64 yards and a touchdown while the home stands went wild. Day ran over the two-pointer and Bentley led, 16-0 at the half.

The Bulldogs took the second half kick-off and marched down the field 67 yards in 10 plays to take a commanding 24-0 lead. Key play in the drive was Roger Moore's run from the Belleville 38 down to the 19-yard-line on a wide end sweep. Rice smashed into the line four consecutive times to put the ball on the three and tailback Gary Battle blasted over from there. Walden hit tight end Leonard Lasota with the conversion pass when the receiver was all alone.

A good kick return put Belleville in position to score. Sophomore Jeff King took (Continued 2nd Sports)

STILL WAITING—Although they'd launched the season with victories over nonleague rivals, Belleville's Tigers are still looking for their inaugural win in the Suburban Six. Livonia Bentley held Coach Jim Richendollar's team scoreless last week and the Tigers hope to break the winless league ice Friday night at Allen Park.

Huron Stalls 5-Yards From 1st Grid Victory

Oh the threshold of their first league victory, Huron faltered in the last second and was denied a win by five yards, as Coach Lee Smeltzer's Chiefs managed to salvage a 6-6 tie from Blissfield to snap a two-game losing streak.

Blissfield broke a scoreless first quarter with a TD in the second frame and hung on until the closing minutes of their Huron conference contest.

Huron quarterback Butch Suemnick finally got the Chiefs moving with a 50-yard pass play, collaborating with Dan Dilks, who made a "fantastic catch" of the ball and fell on the two to set up his team's lonely score.

Suemnick took it over on a quarterback sneak which polished off the 69 yard drive.

Huron missed its chance to go ahead when they failed at their extra point attempt.

Huron continued the momentum after the exchange of downs back with another threat that carried them from mid-field to the five-yard line.

When three desperate attempts failed to get them the go-ahead touchdown and with seconds on the clock, the Chiefs called upon Glenn Thregansky to try a field goal.

He missed and the Chiefs were forced to settle for a tie.

Huron threatened on a couple of other occasions, driving to the Blissfield nine in the third quarter before handing the ball over on downs and they wilted away inside the 20 on two other drives.

Gary Crist's spectacular 70-yard run accounted for the Blissfield touchdown.

IN LITTLE LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Flyers, Cougars Perfect

Tain't often when both the Romulus Flyers and the Belleville Cougars emerged from a week of Little League football action with perfect records.

But that's just what happened last week as all six teams posted victories against their respective peers.

Belleville Star at CMU

John Yocum, who quarterbacked Belleville's 1968 squad and earned All-Area recognition for his feats, was among 40 freshmen football candidates who reported for practice at Central Michigan University.

Yocum, 185-pounds, was a three-sports man, earning letters in football as well as basketball and baseball while attending Belleville High School.

Belleville's Freshmen, sparked by touchdown runs from Steve Schlum and Brian Ralles socked it to the Taylor Cobras 14-6. Schlum scored on a 12-yard sweep and he also picked up the one-point conversion while Ralles' TD jaunt was a spectacular 42-yard, off-tackle sprint.

With Brian Miller and Rodney Sullen each finding their way across the Cobra goal line once and Michael Smolen accounting for two TDs, Belleville's Junior Varsity stunned their counterparts 24-12.

Smolen had a sparkling 60-yard run for his initial touchdown and later scored on a power sweep 21 yards while Miller and Sullen hit paydirt on short trips of eight and seven yards, respectively.

Tom Kos chalked up spectacular TD runs of 40, 60 and 24 yards to lead the Varsity unit to an impressive 19-7 rout of Taylor.

Belleville will face Allen Park next week for its next test.

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

The Power of the Press

"A couple of weeks ago you wrote something about the ethics of football coaches, didn't you?" asked George Lovich, sophomore head football coach at Livonia Franklin High School.

Not knowing whose side Coach Lovich was on, I guarded my answer.

"No," I said, "I didn't write it if there is a law suit pending, and 'Yes,' I did, if you're about to announce that the article has just won the Nobel Prize for Literature."

The Franklin coach replied that neither was correct and that he would like to add something to the practice of coaching "ethics."

The column in question had something to do with Thurston sending agents over to Cherry Hill to spy on Joe LaScola during practice sessions.

Now that, according to coaches, is unethical.

"Well, would you put a P.S. to the script or not?" asked Lovich and suddenly I hear some sobs in the background.

"O.K.," I quickly said. "But you don't have to cry about it."

And Lovich went on to say that there are coaches who are carrying this camera business a bit too far.

"Almost all schools nowadays take movies of games involving their schools," said Lovich, "but, we've noticed coaches sending their cameramen to games that do not involve their schools and flicking away."

Lovich pointed out the obvious that this practice is done in order to get plays of the teams that coaches will meet sometime in the season. "And it's unethical."

"They're really going to extremes," said Lovich. "And there should be a stop to it."

Wayne 19-Annapolis 12 Meridian Minus $$$

How?

Lovich said he would like to see a rule drawn up by leagues prohibiting schools from taking movies of games except when their teams are directly involved.

Sounds pretty good.

"Now, for crying out loud, would you stop crying?" I asked.

"That's not me," answered Lovich. "That's my three-year-old you hear in the background."

"Oh...future quarterback or cheerleader?" I asked.

"Another cheerleader," said Lovich. "She's our latest. And we've named her Kathy. We have two other cheerleaders."

Boy do you have problems, George!

And, speaking of articles, the one on officials and officiating in high school brought this comment from Sylvester Mosley, head football coach at Inkster High, and the impetus of last week's condemnation.

"You should have told it like it was," said Coach Sylvester, who said the blast condemning inconsistent officiating was toned down.

"It was too mild," he said, "we can't let these people get away with poor officiating week-after-week without doing something about it."

Mosley was irritated—to say the least—at the brand of officiating he and his team received a couple of weeks ago at Taylor Center. He's crusading for reforms.

And, Dearborn Heights' Ron Bales, who is head football coach and athletic director at Annapolis High School and many others agree with Mosley. (Now how did he get a hold of the article?)

"The man is right," says Bales, "but there's little you can do!"

Bales also accuses the Sports Meridian of firing up Wayne Memorial by picking Coach Wayne Gorman's Zebras as the underdog in last Saturday's match with his Cougars.

"Thanks a lot," said Bales. "You did that deliberately to get them fired up."

Ron, of course, doesn't know that there is no love lost (Continued 2nd Sports)

Belleville Hopes Dashed

the ensuing kick-off and sprinted right up the middle from his own 20 to Bentley's 47 and almost got away for the touchdown. The Tigers moved the 47 yards in five plays, and a 15-yard face mask grabbing penalty, to get on the scoreboard. Pettus spun over from the six yard line after being hit on the two.

Inspired by their score, the Tigers duplicated the feat nine minutes later. Bentley fumbled on their own 16 and Belleville recovered. Pettus ran to the 12 and Fant raced up the middle untouched on the next play to score, but the extra point again failed and Bentley led, 24-12.

Before their second score the Tigers had reached the Bulldogs' 24-yard-line, but two passes failed to click and the drive fizzled.

Bentley's last score came on a sustained 66-yard drive with second string quarterback, junior Bob Sitkauskas, guiding the 12-play march for the final touchdown.

Sparking the drive was the running of Rice and Bill Wenson. After Rice had gained 10 yards to the 20 for a first down with just one minute left in the game, Sitkauskas hit Koch over the middle with a pass on the 8-yard line.

First-string field general Bob Walden returned to the game, faked a run into the line and scampered untouched around his own left end as the gun sounded to end the game. Rice added the 2-pointer and the final score read, 32-12.

CHIEFS NIPPED

show. And capturing the spotlight was linebacker Joel Richert who appeared to be in on all the tackles. Defensive end Mike Wauer also earned plaudits for his efforts.

"We have been playing with much more confidence," said Coach Smeltzer. "The boys are hitting with authority and have more poise and I feel as we gain more experience our record will improve."

The Chiefs run up against Monroe Catholic Central for their third league test. They'll travel to Monroe Saturday to take on the defending champs in a game scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m.

Bentley had 210 yards rushing and 30 passing, while Belleville had 104 on the ground and 34 through the air. Fant ran for 57 yards and Pettus added 40 for the Tigers.

Playing outstanding defensive games for Belleville were middle guard Jim Singleton, cchia and linebacker Rick Mussehl.

Now 0-2 in the league, the Belleville squad travels to Allen Park Friday night for the third of five consecutive league games.

Bentley and Trenton clash at Trenton Friday night in a game that will decide the Suburban Six Champion for the year. Both teams have 2-0 marks and Trenton is slightly favored in the title contest.

Salmon Fever Hits

While salmon fever continues to be the most popular disease for Lake Michigan fishermen, the "Coho Blues" are being sung along the shores of Lake Huron.

There is continued optimism that a salmon run in Lake Huron like the one that has jammed many parts of Lake Michigan with eager anglers is near. But it is becoming increasingly clear that coho will not be taken in large quantities on the east side of the state this year.

There are three basic reasons for a smaller than expected coho run in Lake Huron this fall, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

*Extensive netting of salmon this spring by commercial fishermen from Canada.

*The worst lamprey attack of Lake Huron fish in over 20 years.

*Smaller plantings of salmon in Lake Huron than in Lake Michigan.

Most important is the effect of commercial fishing. Canadian fishermen netted 35,000 to 40,000 coho, approximately 70,000 pounds, from mid-April to mid-May. This reduced the population of adult salmon in the lake by nearly 50 percent.

Although it is illegal for fishermen in Michigan as well as other states bordering the Great Lakes to net salmon commercially, it is legal in Canadian waters.

"There are 50 percent fewer salmon in Lake Huron than we could have expected if Canadian fishermen hadn't taken their toll," states Dave Borgeson, trout-salmon specialist for the Department of Natural Resources. "Although we planted 500,000 coho in the spring of 1968, past history shows no more than 20 percent of these fish survive their first year."

"We are normally delighted with a 20-percent return of planted fish," he explained. "The majority don't survive because they are most vulnerable to death by natural causes soon after they are placed in the rivers and streams."

As Norm Baldwin, executive secretary of the Great Lakes Fishery Commission, quipped, "Canadian waters were a bad place for salmon to be this spring." Despite these heavy salmon losses, Baldwin believes Canadian fishermen were not making a deliberate attempt to net coho.

"Many fishermen using trap nets for whitefish and pickerel also netted salmon," he said. "In fact, I don't believe these fishermen really wanted the salmon."

Romulus Stunned by Parkers

Romulus travelled to Lincoln Park Friday night and suffered a 33-0 defeat at the hands of the independent football power in a non-league game.

The Railsplitters scored the first time they had the ball, upped their lead to 14-0 at halftime and sent three different backs into the end zone in the second half for the final score.

The Eagles received the opening kickoff and ran three plays before punting to the Lincoln Park 40. Then the Parkers, who won their fourth consecutive victory and third straight shutout, moved 60 yards in 7 plays. Jim Kinney capped the drive by diving the last three yards into paydirt.

Romulus blunted other Lincoln Park drives, but couldn't move the ball. They only managed five first downs during the contest, although they had 157 yards rushing. Most of the gained real estate was in the middle of the field.

After playing nip-and-tuck with the host squad, Romulus was forced to punt. Jim Kinney took Bill Worden's boot on his own 20 yard line and brought the enthusiastic crowd to its feet with a dazzling 80-yard return to again light up the scoreboard. Milt Bonich kicked his second of three consecutive extra points and the Railsplitters led at intermission, 14-0.

"I was very proud of the way our boys played in the first half, holding this strong team to a slim 14-0 lead," Romulus coach George Pratt said after the game. "We were with them all the way during that time, giving up only one touchdown to their offense besides the punt return."

Then Lincoln park's vaunted power began to assert itself. The perennial pigskin giant began to grind out huge chunks of yardage with Kinney, bruising Bob Garcia, Ed Bozich and Dennis Miller providing the punch.

In the third quarter, the Parkers moved down the field briskly to the Romulus 18-yard-line. Here, Ed Bozich took the hand-off from the quarterback and zig-zagged his way into the end zone and when Bonich split the uprights for the third time, the big scoreboard read: 21-0.

Stopping Romulus again, the Railsplitters came right back. Moving with precision, the host squad marched down to the Eagle 10-yard-line. Bob Garcia, a 210-pound bruising fullback and one of the best in the area, boomed through the line to score the Parkers' fourth TD. Bozich's kick was no good and Romulus trailed, 27-0.

The Parkers' last score came as the result of Romulus trying to strike through the air and get back into the game. Chris Glinski, who was returned to quarterback after sitting out most of the last two games, was intercepted on his own 20. Lincoln Park covered that yardage in just three plays as Dennis Miller burst seven yards for the touchdown and the final score, 33-0.

Romulus could only muster five first downs the entire game and Glinski hit only one pass completion, to Rance Thomas, in nine tries for 12 yards. The Eagles ground out 157 yards running, a very respectable amount, but couldn't get closer than the Lincoln Park 17-yard-line. They were at that point when the gun cracked to end the first half.

Leading the Eagle rushing attack was Glinski with 24 yards in 9 carries. Brent Hamilton scooted 20 yards in just three attempts. Dan Chapo rambled 12 in five and Rance Thomas was held to 16 in six carries.

The Eagles are now winless in their first four games, having only a tie with Hamtramck to keep them from four losses. But the defense continues to sparkle, led by 5-9, 150-pound defensive guard Leon Janes. The mighty mite had 12 unassisted tackles and aided in 8 others besides blocking one extra point kick.

Russ Reaume made five tackles and helped on eight others and senior Pat Tutus, playing his first game, made four stops, assisted on three others and recovered a fumble. Coach Pratt also had words of praise for Gary Martin, offensive tackle, who played a fine game in the line.

The defense played well despite the 33 points. One touchdown came on the 80-yard punt return and another came after Lincoln Park got the ball on the Romulus' 20 after a pass interception. Other than that, the Eagles were fairly rigid in holding the Railsplitters.

"Bill Worden played a good game filling in for Dave Brown when Brown was knocked woosy early in the game," Pratt said. Brown had to leave the game and Worden, normally a quarterback, filled in at fullback and did an admirable job, once getting off a 60-yard quick kick.

ANP Editors Win Journalistic Honors

WESTLAND--Two Associated Newspapers editors were honored with awards for outstanding journalism this week, and the Westland Eagle was honored in news reporting.

Lothar Konietzko, ANP Chief Photographer, was awarded an honor citation from the Suburban Press Foundation at its Chicago Convention, bringing the well-known photojournalist his 40th journalistic honor. Konietzko competed in photojournalism, with suburban editors from all areas of the nation.

Rosemary Kozielski, editor of the Inkster Ledger-Star won an honorable mention for her original personal column writing from the Michigan Press Association, in competition with writers in Michigan. It was the second time in six months that Miss Kozielski won column-writing honors. She took the Leo A. Lerner award from the Suburban Press Foundation earlier this year.

The Westland Eagle took third place in news reporting for the second year in a row, competing with newspapers from all over Michigan. During the year, the Westland Eagle was edited by Dick McKnight, who is now ANP News Editor. News reporting is a category in which newspapers compete for total community coverage, editorial writing and background reporting.

ANP Managing Editor Robert McClellan said, "We are very proud of the continuing excellence of our editorial staff, as evidenced by the high regard they have earned with the judges of these important newspaper competitions."

"Miss Kozielski has proven herself to be a highly creative and sound-thinking writer, and has been a fine addition to our staff during the past year. Chief Photographer Konietzko's work has always been one of our finest attributes, and the Westland Eagle serves as an example of the excellent coverage our staff can contribute to the community," he said.

ANP General Manager David J. Willett added, "We have always sought to provide our communities with the best in editorial coverage. It is encouraging and a source of pride for all of us to be held in high esteem by impartial judges. I congratulate the entire editorial staff on their achievements."

The Westland Eagle news reporting award was earned by all members of the ANP staff who contributed to the pages of the Westland Eagle. Included among the honored writers are Tom Mooradian, sports editor; Kay DeBord, women's editor; Gail McKnight, Eagle staff writer; Jim Bradley, church editor; Dann Barkume, education writer; Anne Nozowski, education writer; Trudy Ketelhut, staff writer, and Ron Zielinski, photographer.

'Catch Me' Comes To Glenn Stage

The Catskill Mountains is the setting for "Catch Me If You Can," the comedy murder mystery to be presented by the Wayne Civic Players at John Glenn High School Friday and Saturday, Oct. 17 and 18 at 8:30 p.m., and Sunday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

The play details the misadventures of a newlywed husband who is seeking his missing bride. Carl Schuman takes the role of Inspector Levine who attempts to find the missing wife.

Board Boosts Sex Ed

The Wayne County Intermediate School District passed a three-part resolution in favor of sex education.

The District urged that the State Board of Education publish guidelines, encourage schools to establish appropriate voluntary sex education programs, and give assistance in the appropriate training of local staff members.

The Intermediate District also commended the local boards "for assuming their responsibilities in providing programs" in the area of sex education.

Lastly the Intermediate District vowed that it would provide assistance and use of its resources "to advance the study of sex education in the schools of Wayne County."

Others in the cast include David Eastman as Daniel Corbin, the newly married advertising salesman, and Karen Anderson who plays his lost wife.

Cast in supporting roles re Ron Goldman, Al Emmerling, Al LaCroix and Ginnie Tadlock.

This first Player's production of the fall season will be directed by Lois Tobin, and Al Emmerling is designing the sets.

FICKLE FINGER OF FATE--Carl Schuman plays Inspector Levine and Ginnie Tadlock is the Blonde Temptress who stands accused in this scene from "Catch Me If You Can," to be presented by the Wayne Civic Players October 17-19 at John Glenn High School, Westland.

the great Winston Churchill who told the world... "Never in the history of mankind had so much been owned so few"...

One of these young pilots of the Royal Air Force was Flight Lieutenant John Gillespie Magee Jr., who like all the other RAF pilots during the Battle of Britain landed during the fighting only long enough for fuel and a quick cup of tea and off into the air to combat the waves of German aircraft that blackened the skies from daybreak to nightfall.

However in spite of all the pressures, lack of time and duress of those days Magee managed to find time to write his poem. It was written with feelings fresh from the high altitudes and the sound of thunderous screaming of punished aircraft engines still ringing in his ears. He put those sounds and feelings into words like no other person has ever been able to do. It has become the top favorite for airman, groups and families in all corners of the globe.

Ironically the fame and popular acceptance for the poem which was to become world famous as the

UNTRESPASSED AND CLEAN-The beauty of the heavens is without doubt where Royal Air Force pilot Magee found his inspiration for the words that compose his famous "High Flight" that was to become accepted by airman the world over as the "Airman's Prayer". In such a setting as pictured here, high in the sky, an RAF Spitfire such as Magee flew, darts among the clouds as if to emphasize the final words of his poem that say... "Put out my hands and touch the face of God."

'High Flight' Known World Over as 'Airman's Prayer.'

JUST TWO MONTHS AGO-Flying World presented a column to ease the minds of the many flying buffs who want to join the flying world but are "afraid to fly".

The story was sprinkled with excerpts from the world famous Airman's Prayer titled "High Flight". This poem since the days of World War II became the basic prayer of flying people of many nationalities in countries all over the world.

Since that time many phone calls, cards and letters have come into this office from readers asking more about the airman's prayer and how or where complete copies of it could be obtained. The many callers wanted to know how and where it originated, and who wrote it. Even the United States Air Force uses the poem as a narration for a short recruiting film that is shown occasionally on television.

So for the benefit of the many readers of Flying World and those who have not known the history of this famous poem, we have researched and come up with many of the answers to our readers, questions... and a

HIGH FLIGHT

By John Gillespie Magee, Jr.

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew.
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

complete copy of the prayer right here on the Flying World page for our readers to clip and save.

"High Flight" came into being during the darkest hours of Great Britain early in World War II. As the blazing pages of history have recorded, only a small handful of determined brave and very young men actually stood between the aerial destruction of England by the very powerful, numerically superior German Luftwaffe. These were pilots of the Royal Air Force scattered at numerous small bases along the channel coast facing the continent.

The bravery and fighting skill of this small segment of airmen will be talked about as long as people talk about history. It brought forth one of the greatest tributes from "Airman's prayer" came much later.

Young Magee had sent his poem into a London newspaper not too long after he had completed it.

It was published... the day after its author, Lieutenant John Gillespie Magee, Jr. was killed in aerial combat against the German Luftwaffe.

Lunar Craft Tested

NASA officials are looking at a small "roving lunar vehicle" which can operate in an 18-mile lunar radius (around the spacecraft) at "speeds" of up to 9.6 mph. General Motors and Boeing, co-bidders on a lunar vehicle contract, say they have tested one version, driving it up the face of a vertical seven-foot cliff.

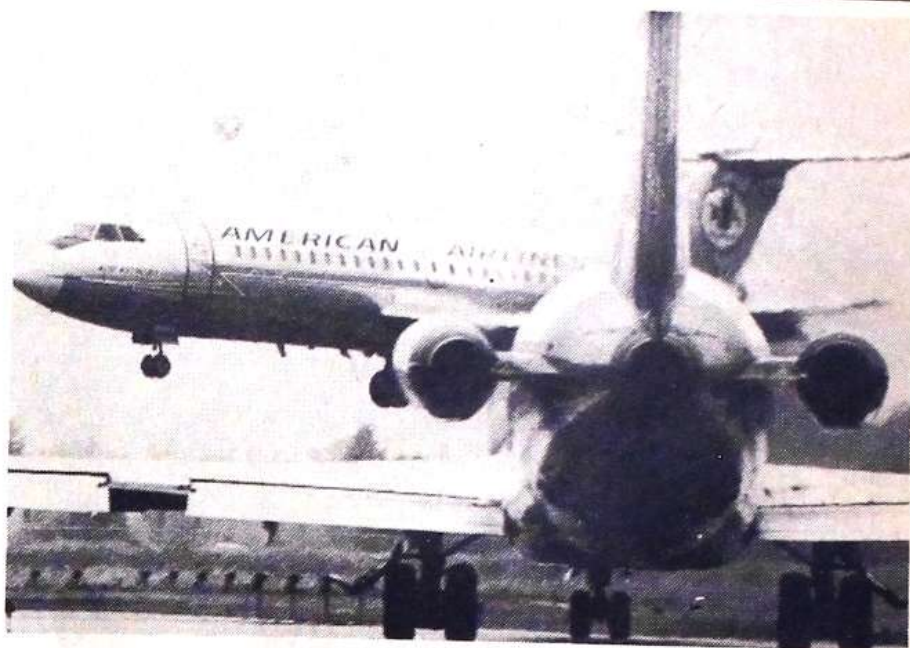

Copter Logs

Record Time

Boeing 107 ("Vertol") helicopters have logged a record new total of 500,000 flight hours. Six hundred of the big choppers are now in service with New York Airways, the U.S. Marines, the U.S. Navy, Japanese Army, Navy and Air Force and Thailand and Sweden. Biggest contributors to the total were Marine "Vertols" which have logged 385,000 flight hours including 195,000 Viet Nam combat hours.

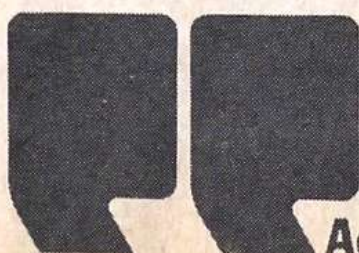

Breaks Records

Allegheny Airlines broke regional airline industry records in August by boarding 452,867 passengers and flying 125,115,905 revenue passenger miles. This broke the previous record established in June.

What Is Urban Renewal ?

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The second of two articles on Urban Renewal Programs submitted by George Wilhelm, Urban Renewal director for Romulus Township follows.)

Urban Renewal basically works in the following way: A community comes up with a plan and I emphasize that this is the community plan, for an area. It then submits that plan to the Federal Government for review. If the "Fed's" like the plan and if there is Federal monies available, they agree to participate with the community in their fulfillment with the plan. (I might note here I have just condensed a couple thousand miles of red tape into one line).

When the plan is approved the community sets about to implement the plan. It can be done in a number of ways. In the Wayne-Beverly Area, even though our program has not been approved to this date, the plan is being implemented through private development by groups and individuals who are building in the area now.

The Federal Government has said that, because Romulus is a small community, it will assist it by paying, through a direct grant, 3/4 of the cost of preparing the area for development. This means that of the $16,000,000 the Township has estimated it will cost; to provide streets, storm sewers, side walks, assemble odd size lots and acreages into buildable parcels, buy substandard housing and assist those which are going to be relocated in finding or building new homes, the Township's share will be approximately $4,000,000.

ALTHOUGH THE $4,000,000 will not have to be in cash, it can be provided in what is known as Non-Cash Credits such as schools, street widening by the Wayne County Road Commission, sewer and water etc., this is still a pretty large chunk of money.

What do the citizens of Romulus have to gain through the expenditures of this money.

First of all it is conservatively estimated that when finally completed the approximately 600 acres will produce $30 to $40 million dollars in private development. I emphasize private development because many people imagine that all Urban Renewal does is take land off of the tax rolls and this is the complete opposite of what is actually the truth.

THE ONLY lands which will be taken off the tax rolls will be that land which will be set aside for parks and a possible future school site.

The only non-revenue producing development in the area will be the 101 units of "Low-Rent Public Housing" now being constructed in the area. This still leaves approximately 300 acres of single family residential, 100 acres of multifamily residential, and 40 acres of commercial development to be built in the area over the next eight years, all by private development and all revenue producing.

MOST STUDENTS AGREE Students' Plea For Float Entry Denied

BELLEVILLE — Denial of permission to enter a Junior High float in the Belleville High School's Homecoming Parade on Friday, Oct. 17, has failed to dampen the spirits of students behind the Float Project.

The students reported that Don White, principal of Belleville Junior High School, denied their request last Friday, Oct. 3, despite petitions supporting the students and containing "about 500 students signatures."

Belleville High plays Trenton High School on Homecoming Day at the high school's athletic field.

THE PETITIONS asked: "I would like to help you have a Junior High School float," and added "We the students of Belleville Junior High School would like to have the Junior High Float in the Homecoming Parade, Oct. 17."

Float project leaders reported that they had received an OK from the high school student council, but when informing Principal White of this along with a presentation of signatures appearing on the petitions had been circulated around the Junior High, he refused.

They were told that the Homecoming Parade was for high school students only.

THE IDEA for entering a Junior High School float was initiated by members of the eighth grade class, who were later joined by others including seventh graders.

The students intend to finish their float display it around the community and school since they have been refused entry in the Homecoming Parade.

Aside from the increase in tax base one other factor will be accomplished and this I believe is the most important.

THE NEGATIVE aspects of the Wayne-Beverly Renewal Area are here now, they are not going to magically disappear. When, and if, Romulus becomes a city these problems would still be here. Sooner or later Romulus would have to face these problems and find a solution to them.

I commend the citizens of Romulus for embarking upon an Urban Renewal Program at this time when the job can be completed with the least disruption to the community, the least hardship on those citizens of Romulus affected by the program and in the final analysis at the least cost to the tax payers of Romulus itself.

Through the Gideon Memorial Bible plan, 50 Bibles were given in tribute as a living memorial to the late Carolyn Wolf, a member of the Young People's group at the Calvary Baptist Church on Ozga Road. Miss Wolf passed away during the summer.

The next scheduled meeting of the Merriman PTA is Wednesday (Oct. 8) at the Harrison School. Robert Knight of 15781 Colbert is President. Mt. Pleasant PTA meets Tuesday, Oct. 14. President of the group is Mrs. Kenneth Clark, 14184 Conover, Romulus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dick, Sr. of California Road returned home recently from an eight day trip via Greyhound Bus to Emporia, Kansas, where they visited relatives and friends. The couple returned home by train.

Ronald E. Dick, son of the Charles Dicks, Sr. of California Road, has been discharged from the U.S. Navy after four years service. He has returned to classes at Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, this fall.

Jaycees Party

BELLEVILLE—The annual Millionaire's Party under the sponsorship of the Belleville Jaycee Club will be held Oct. 11, at the Polish National Alliance Hall (P.N.A.) located at Sumpter and Harris Roads.

The party will begin at 8 p.m. and run until 2 a.m. "The Moonmists" will entertain for dancing. There will also be free refreshments and prizes to be awarded.

The Millionaire Party is a version of a Las Vegas gambling casino, but play money is used. The price of admission is $3.50 per person.

Tickets purchasers will receive $25 in play money when entering the party. Ben Storemski, program chairman, said. Persons must be 21 years or older to attend the affair.

Belleville Lad Wins Pony Prize

ROMULUS—Winner of the grand prize of a Postcard-Balloon sponsored contest was announced Monday by Romulus Jaycees.

The grand prize was a two-year-old gelding Shetland pony named "CoCo." It was won by John Rice, 5-year-old son, of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morgan of 7696 Belleville Road.

During this year's County 4-H Fair held at the 4-H

Fairgrounds, Belleville, Romulus Jaycees held a contest whereby participants signed a postcard attached to a balloon.

Winner was determined by the distance the balloon traveled and returned by the finder of the balloon.

The balloons contained a message on a card asking the finder to return the card to the Romulus Jaycees.

Leroy Yunger of 66355 Lowe Plank Road,

Richmond, Michigan returned the card entered by John Rice and it turned out to be the longest distance. He will be receive a prize. Harold Connon of the Jaycees stated. The pony was purchased by the Jaycees from Ed Kinds Riding Stables, located at Elizabeth Park, Trenton.

PTA Aid Request

ROMULUS—PTA presidents have been enlisted in the effort to place the Aid to Non Public Schools issue on the ballot for the November, 1970 election.

Michigan Congress of PTA has supplied each local unit with 50 petitions expressing opposition to state aid to non public schools (parochial).

THE PETITIONS urge the Legislature to take no action until the issue has been taken to the people.

Signatures on the petitions are not limited to registered voters; anyone, 21 years or older may sign.

Deadline for filing the petitions with the state office is on or before Oct. 31.

Know Your Local Rotarian

Justin Emerson was born July 27, 1911 in Inkster, Michigan, later moving with his family to Romulus.

He graduated from Wayne High School in 1931. After several short-term jobs during the depression, including helping with his parent's dairy farm, he secured a job as janitor at the Wayne Office of the Detroit Edison Company.

This Sept. 26 will mark Justin's 35th year with the Detroit Edison Company.

Justin was a radio operator with the 94th Division during World War II and was among the first of General George Patton's troops to cross the Rhine. He served a total of three years and eight months and was discharged with a T-5 rating.

THE EMERSONS moved to Belleville in 1951 and Justin joined the Belleville Rotary Club the same year. He is also a past President of the Belleville Rotary Club.

Justin has always been a Civic-minded person. He is a member of the First United Methodist Church and served as Lay Leader for several years, member and past president of the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce; Chairman of Local Draft Board 222; member of the Board of Family and Neighborhood Services; and for many years has been active in the Boy Scout organization, recently receiving the Silver Beaver award in recognition of service.

It takes about 11,000 quarts of milk to make a ton of cheese which would be enough to make sandwiches for 34,680 persons the Oregon Dairy Products Commission has figured out.

JUSTIN AND MARGUERITE were married on Sept. 16, 1941 and have four children.

Sam Emerson, the oldest, and his wife, Sue, are living at Ft. McClellan, Alabama, after serving a year in Vietnam; their daughter, Pat, and husband, Robert Groeschner, are living in East Norwalk, Connecticut, son, William, is a Senior at Central Michigan University; and son, Richard, is a Freshman at James Madison College, Michigan State University.

The Emersons are presently residing at 140 Madelon Street in the City of Belleville.

$2,000 Reward Offered In $20,000 Burglary

NEW BOSTON--Frank E. Bryant owner and operator of a chain of stores, has offered a $2,000 reward for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of the thief or thieves who robbed him of cash in excess of $20,000, checks and savings bonds.

Bryant reported to the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol that his car, containing the cash, checks and bonds was broken into on Thursday, Sept. 24, while the car was parked in the backyard of his home, located at 25495 Clark Road, New Boston.

Stolen was about $20,000 in cash, 200 to 300 endorsed checks he had cashed for employees, 12 to 14 miscellaneous checks made out to employees in the amount of $1,000, and a $717.40 check plus seven savings bonds.

HE REPORTED that the stolen property was in four zipper money banks from Wayne Bank. The cash contained a $1,000 bill and several $100 bills.

He also reported that his Smith and Wesson .38 special revolver was taken from the car.

He told police officers that he had a fire in one of his stores. The Trash and Treasure store, located at 41821 Michigan Avenue following a break-in where burglars took $5,400 in cash and about $200 to $800 in merchandise.

Sales of remaining and undamaged items and business operations were being conducted from his car as well as cashing checks for his employees pending bank transfers.

He operates stores in Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee.

Awards Service Pins

Three veteran employees of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority with a combined total of 80 years of service were honored along with 71 other employees at an employees party held at Warren Chauteau Hall, Warren last Friday, Oct. 3. They are:

P. K. McWethy, Secretary to the Board of Commissioners since 1946, who joined the regional parkway agency on March 9, 1942 as a civil engineer. McWethy, as an HCMA engineer, first helped develop Metropolitan Beach and since then has been involved in all projects of the Authority. He has 27 years of service and resides at 82 Gratiot, Mt. Clemens.

Edward Sevich, cartographer, who was hired on March 26, 1942 and has over 27 years of service with the HCMA. One of his responsibilities is the preparation of the Metropark Guide, a map issued every other year showing location of all Authority parks. He resides at 7142 Plainfield Ave., Dearborn Heights.

Conrad P. Kuhles, engineering aide, who joined the Authority Jan. 1, 1944. He has also served as an assistant engineer and construction engineer for the Macomb County Road Commission and the Michigan Dept. of State Highways. Kuhles received a gift from his fellow employees because he will retire on Dec. 31, 1969 with 26 years of service. He resides at 38125 Hamon Road, Mt. Clemens.

McWETHY, SAVICH AND KUHLES are only three of 208 year-around employees who can claim over 26 years of service to the Authority. Each was presented with a 25-year HCMA service pin by HCMA Commissioners William E. Kreger, Wayne County's representative from Wyandotte, and Charles H. Sutton, Livingston County's representative from Howell.

The Authority was approved by the vote of the people in 1940 by the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne and began acquiring its staff in 1942. Its best-known parks are Metropolitan Beach, Stony Creek Metropolitan Park, Kensington Metropolitan Park, Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park and Lower Huron Metropolitan Park.

Intermediate Board Adopts Sex Education Resolution

DETROIT-- The Wayne County Intermediate Board of Education adopted, unanimously, a resolution stating their position relative to the State Board of Education's guidelines for voluntary sex education programs. At a special meeting held Wednesday, Oct. 1.

The resolution is as follows:

WHEREAS sex is a vital part of living and an important aspect of the life of a fulfilled individual; and WHEREAS many youth are making inappropriate decisions about their sexual behavior, as evidenced by the alarming number of pregnancies out of wedlock and the increase in venereal disease; and

WHEREAS the school is a major instrument of society which prepares the young for their present and adult roles and school programs should deal with relevant issues which includes the study of human sexuality; and

WHEREAS many school districts have established effective sex education programs in cooperation with and with the support of the community; and

WHEREAS research has shown that sound sex education programs have a positive effect; and

WHEREAS the state board of education has carefully studied guidelines for sex education programs and has allowed for adequate public hearings on the matter; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the state board of education publish guidelines, encourage schools to establish appropriate training of local school district staff members in the education of pupils and in providing help to parents in playing their proper role in the education of their children; and be it

RESOLVED further, That local school boards be commended for assuming their responsibilities in providing programs in this important area; and be it

RESOLVED further, That the Wayne County Intermediate School District Board of Education and staff provide assistance and support to local school districts on request and that resources, be used to make available expert assistance and materials to advance the study of sex education in the schools of Wayne County.

Lions' 'Long Reach' Aids World's Needy Via CARE

The Lions Clubs of Michigan have a long reach and the good their members do extends far beyond the borders of their fortunate and beautiful state.

Today, the words "Michigan" and "Lions" carry a special meaning to men, women and children burdened with a heritage of centuries of poverty.

By contributing $3,221 to CARE during the past year, Michigan Lions have contributed to the welfare of mankind in three countries around the world.

IN GUATEMALA, Michigan Lions provided materials to build two new schools in the villages of Rio Blanco and Chapulco.

"In Malaysia the Lions of the Wolverine State participated in a special CARE relief and rehabilitation fund, established after a fire destroyed 500 homes in the fishing village of Jualakedah on March 14, 1968.

In Korea, the Choong Ang Orphanage was provided with food and tool kits through the Lions' generosity.

 LIONS CLUBS throughout the nation contributed $147,666 to help support CARE projects in 23 needy countries.

Farmers were provided with seeds and hand tools; school children were given school supplies; the tools of the trade were supplied to carpenters, masons, shoemakers, auto mechanics and other skilled craftsmen; midwives were equipped with modern, sanitary supplies to deliver healthy babies; seamstresses were given CARE sewing machines -- all through the generosity of Lions Clubs, through CARE.

In all, Lions built 81 schools last year, and provided school desks for more than 1,600 children, installed water systems in four Central American villages, and an artesian well in the Philippines.

LIONS AIDED the blind of India, Pakistan and Ceylon by providing educational aids, Braille typewriters and duplicating machines.

A PTA Message

Student unrest... teachers' strikes... hungry children... youngsters in trouble... smoking... alcohol and drug abuse.

These are just a few of the problems facing parents and teachers today. Problems that must be solved to assure a bright future for every child. That's why PTA is right for the time.

Action-oriented PTA's across the nation continue to channel their energies into united, effective programs in their schools and communities.

They share in massive effort to fight any inadequacy, inequity, or failure of society which limits the opportunities of children.

Turning concern into possible action is traditional in PTA, and it is reflected in the efforts of more than 43,000 local PTA's in all fifty states, the District of Columbia, and the American overseas dependents schools.

Royal Arch Hosts Hypnotist

PLYMOUTH—Colonial Chapter of Royal Arch Masons celebrated eight years of organization with a party October 2 at the Masonic Temple in Plymouth.

Special honors were bestowed upon Past High Priests, and a lecture and demonstrations were provided by hypnotist J. James Habib, a member and Past Master of Detroit Lodge No. 2. Habib is a member of the Association to Advance Ethical Hypnosis.

More than 40,000 persons attended the annual Grape Festival at Naples, N.Y. this past summer and next year even more are expected.

The annual awards dinner will be held in the Coliseum at 5 p.m. Saturday avoiding the necessity of leaving the grounds.

Youths, ages 10 through 18, may enter animals in the show.

EMU PLAYERS

Opening the season with the Lerner and Loewe musical, "Paint Your Wagon," The Eastern Michigan University Players Series promises to be bigger and brighter than ever. The Players Series is one of three regular performance programs offered at Eastern. An annual Children's Theatre production is presented and the very active Experimental Theatre Series plans its usual 50 or more offerings.

"Paint Your Wagon" will be presented on two consecutive weekends, Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and 2; and Nov. 5 through Nov. 8. This will be followed by Arthur Miller's lofty drama, "Death of a Salesman" from Dec. 20 through Dec. 14. From March 14. From March 4 through March 8, Bertold Brecht's multi-media anti-war explosion, "Mother Courage," will be produced.

Season coupon books are available for the four-play series and single admissions may be obtained at the door but reservations are usually wise since every performance is well-booked in advance. The Quirk box office, open from 12:45 to 4:30 p.m. may be called at 482-3453.

'Chronicles of Hell' Has Impact

BY HOWARD ALLEN
ANP AMUSEMENT CRITIC

Michel de Ghelderode's "Chronicles of Hell," current production of the APA Repertory in the University of Michigan Professional Theatre Program season, is about as subtle as a sledge hammer-and has as much impact.

This type of allegory has been around for a millenium-it's the modern morality play, set in an ancient Flemish episcopal palace which James Tilton must have created for a Charles Addams sorcerer.

Jan in Eremo, the Bishop of Lapideopolis, has died-probably with the assist of his auxiliary, for the churchmen hated Jan, who usurped his diocese after the seemingly miraculous ending of a plague, later to be confirmed by Rome when the maddened rabble made him their own.

Now Jan is laid in state while the mob cries murder and the venal churchmen feast. Whether Jan arises like a latter-day Christ, beloved of the people while hated by authority, or whether the murderers were not thorough enough, is the uncomfortable dilemma you must resolve.

The rotting Gothic set is matched by John Hoseman's highly physical staging. If Jan must choke, let him do it all over the stage. If there be smoke, let there be lots of it. So too is the acting, broad in scope and effectively sweeping. Patrick Hlmes was especially effective as the bloodthirsty auxiliary.

"The Chronicles of Hell" may be a study in black and white, but is highly recommended for those who think the theatre is getting too tame.

A companion piece to the one-acter is a brief scene by Beckett, "Play," in which three gray shadows of people, rendered even less human by being buried in typically Beckettian urns, shed new light on the eternal triangle, the eternity of which Beckett demonstrates by having the entire work repeat itself. Those who think that Samuel Beckett has become a cliché of Samuel Beckett will, no doubt, get new ammunition here.

Humanity isn't in much better shape at the University of Detroit, whose theatre has opened its season with Edward Albee's latest, "Everything in the Garden." In the program notes director Alan Jorgensen apologizes slightly with, "While it is not Albee's best play, it is still important enough to justify its presentation. If a director concedes that much you don't have to be much of a critic to know that the play is far from good.

But even bad Albee is probably better than good somebody-else. Albee was one of the original absurdist and people are pretty absurd to him. Here he examines the social mores of modern suburbia, a society founded-Albee believes-on status seeking and greed. Albee's young matrons, in efforts to keep up with the neighbors take up part time prostitution and manage to net $800 a week for four afternoons' work. The husbands are bitter and shocked at first but, with so much dough coming in, they accommodate rather quickly.

Then, to show how quickly consciences can dull, a neighbor finds out and is murdered.

FLIGHT STOP-Jeanne C. Riley, famed songstress whose "Harper Valley PTA" hit earned her stardom, was on flight stopover at Metropolitan Airport when ANP Flying World editor Bill Balogh snapped this photo.

FESTIVAL FEATURE-Handpainting is a talent shared by many old-world ethnic groups. Here Mrs. Martha Wichouck demonstrates her own hand painting for admiring youngsters. Mrs. Wichouck will be at Westland Center's International Festival to be held October 16-17-18 on the mall.

Southgate Theater Joins George Chain

SOUTHGATE—The new multimillion-dollar Southgate Theatre opens tonight at 7 p.m., playing "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid," starring Paul Newman and Robert Redford.

The Southgate is the newest of 11 theatres in the Nicholas George chain, which includes the Allen Park, Americana, Mai Kai, Camelot and Michigan Downtown Theatres; and the Fort George, Galaxy, Jolly Roger and Michigan Drive-Ins.

George told ANP he would host a free movie party for area youngsters with two complete shows on Saturday. The morning program at 10 a.m. and the afternoon showing at 1 p.m. will feature the Walt Disney "Dog of Flanders" feature and a "Disney Cartoon Revue." Free gifts will be given to each boy and girl attending the showing.

Peace Campaign Begins in Livonia

An anti-war campaign, led by a newly formed Committee for Peace, will begin this month in Livonia and surrounding communities.

Planned to correspond with the beginning date of the nationwide Vietnam Moratorium, the Committee said that it hopes to attract ordinary citizens, plus student, faculty, labor, business, professional, civil rights, political, and church groups in a Workshop for Peace at Schoolcraft College Oct. 15.

Leaflets announcing the Workshop and other, anti-war protests will be passed out at shopping centers, and door-to-door throughout the area, this weekend.

The intention of the Workshop is to provide and even create ideas that will show a growing outcry for peace in today's world, by every sector of the community.
